TWO ROSE FANNING PUPILS DEAD, 14 ILL OF DIPHTHERIA

Disease Develops Among First Grade Students and All Are Watched Closely.

GIRL LAST TO SUCCUMB

Her Father, Dentist, Recommends That School Be Closed for 14 Days.

With two pupils dead and 14 others ill with diphtheria, the Board of Education and the Health Department are exercising emergency measures in an effort to prevent further infection among pupils of the Rose Fanning School at Grace and McDonald avenues.

Twelve cases developed in room 22 at the school, which is for pupils of the first grade, whose ages range from 6 to 7 years. Fifty pupils are enrolled in this room, and all of them are under constant surveillance for symptoms of diphtheria.

Mary Jane Scott, 6 years old, daughter of Dr. Walter H. Scott, a dentist at Grand avenue and Utah street, was the second pupil whose illness was fatal. She died last Friday after being ill five days.

The boy pupil, who died about a month ago, was Elmer Wetzel, who lived on Tennessee avenue and who sat across the aisle from Dr. Scott's daughter.

A third death among school children from diphtheria was that of George P. Burphy of 3258 Pennsylvania avenue, a pupil at St. Pius' Parochial School, Grand avenue and Utah street, April 27. He was a son of Joseph Murphy. Paul Rossman, 14, of 3701 McDonald avenue, a pupil at this school, also is ill of diphtheria, as is his brother, Louis, 5, a kindergarten pupil at the Rose Fanning School. The two schools are two blocks apart.

Three Pupils Are Sent Home.

Seven new cases developed Tuesday afternoon, making a total of 16, just at a time when officials of the Board of Education and the Health Department thought they had the situation well in hand. Three of the cases were discovered among pupils in room 22 and the sick children were sent home. The Health Department found the other four cases by sending to the homes of the absentee pupils.

Dr. Scott, whose daughter died, told a Post-Dispatch reporter Wednesday he would recommend to the Board of Education that the school be closed for 14 days. Incubation in diphtheria cases develops within 14 days, he said, and the closing of the school for that time would allow all cases to develop individually at home without exposing every child in the school to further risks.

Ben Blewett, Superintendent of Schools, when told of Dr. Scott's recommendation, said he thought better results would be obtained by keeping the Rose Fanning School open. By keeping the pupils in school, Blewett said, physicians can watch their symptoms daily and make an earlier discovery of diphtheria if it develops.

The first diphtheria case developed about two months ago, and a month ago Elmer Wetzel died. Since then the entire school building has been fumigated once and room 22, where all the cases have developed, has been fumigated twice. Temperatures of pupils were taken daily for a time.

A physician and a nurse are now being kept at the school all day.

Principal Underwood thinks the failure to find a diphtheria carrier in the school indicates the first case of diphtheria was contracted by a pupil playing in the streets or at a moving picture show. He believes the spread of diphtheria was due to an incorrect diagnosis made by the physician who treated Virgil Springer, and who declared his case to be tonsilitis. Dr. Stewart found, after the boy had been returned and had associated with other children, that the disease was diphtheria.

Dr. Stewart made public the names of these Rose Fanning pupils who are ill with diphtheria: Martha Grossjean, 12 years old, 3428 Connecticut street; Louis Rossman, 5, of 3701 McDonald avenue; William Caufield, 13, 3445A McKean avenue; Evelyn Kredell, 7, 3530 Wyoming street; Dorothy Heitkamp, 6, 3445 Utah street; Alice Noll, 7, 3449 Tennessee avenue; Carl Stay, 7, 3463 Tennessee avenue; Elmer de May, 11, 3405 South Spring avenue; Virgil Springer, 6, 3521 Giles avenue; Helen Haafeld, 6, 3707 South Spring avenue; Earl Becker, 6, 3628 Tennessee avenue, and Edward Strah.

Between April 1 and May 5 the Health Department reported to the Board of Education 213 cases of diphtheria among children of school age. Dr. Stewart said no record was made by the Health Department that would show what number were in the public schools and what number in the parochial and other schools, but on the basis of relative enrollments he supposed about 65 per cent were public school pupils.

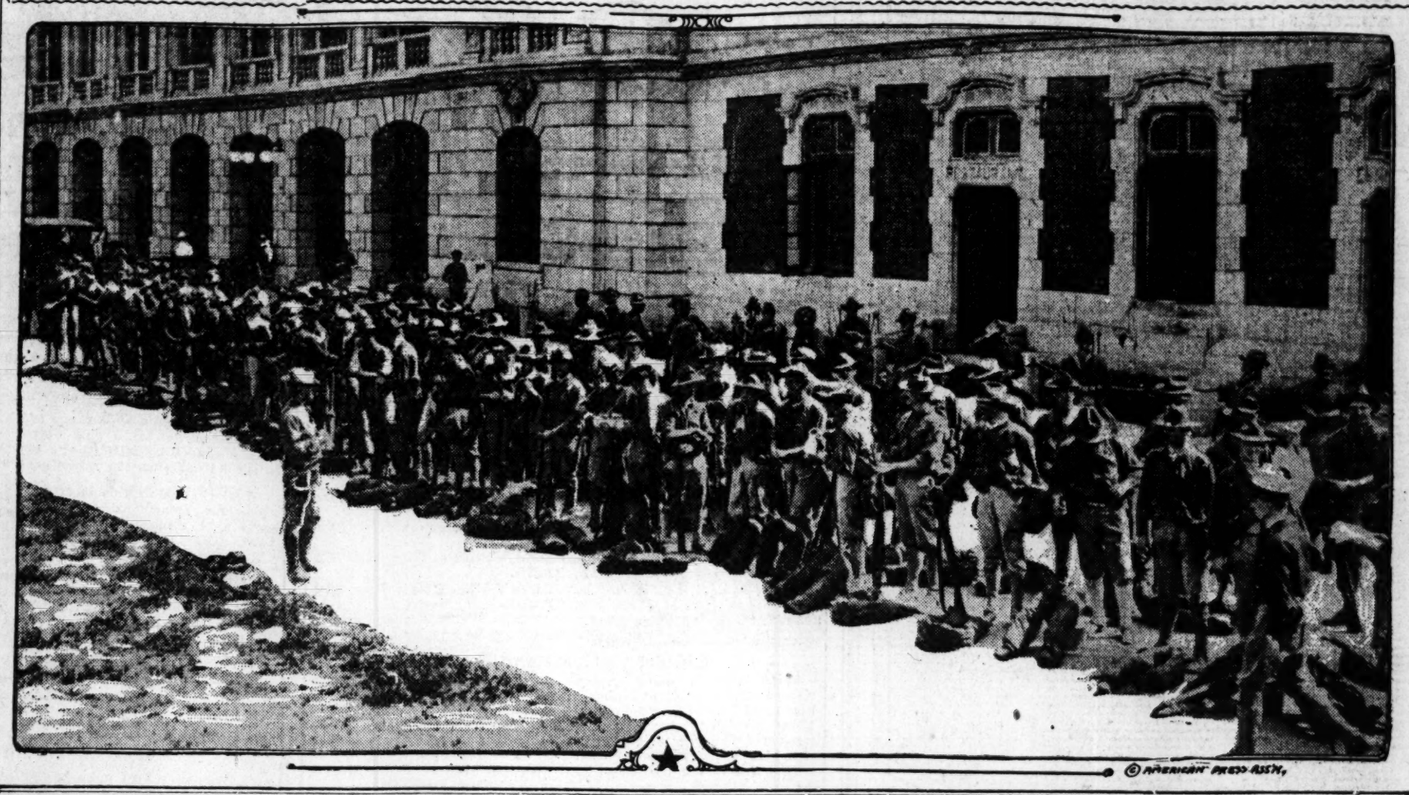

The number of cases, Dr. Stewart said, was not abnormal for a city the size of St. Louis. The cases were well distributed except in the Fanning School District.

BRITAIN DEMANDS $62,000 OF HAITI, BUT HAITI'S BROKE

Ultimatum, Backed by Warship, Calls for Payment for Loss in Revolution.

By Associated Press.

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, May 5.—The British diplomatic representative at Port au Prince today delivered an ultimatum to the Haitien Government, demanding the immediate payment of an indemnity of $62,000 to a British subject in compensation for the destruction by fire of his sawmill during the Leconte revolution.

The ultimatum expires at 6 o'clock this evening.

The British demand is supported by the presence here of the British cruiser Suffolk. The payment of this sum of money to the British subject in question, a man named Peters, had previously been ordered by a court of arbitration.

Immediately after the presentation of the British demand, the members of the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate met in joint session. The deliberations were marked by great excitement. Senator Gauvin bitterly reproached the Cabinet for not being able to meet the situation. There are no funds in hand with which to make the payment demanded.

Boy Witness Grasps Revolver and Prevents Shot While Case Is on Trial in Honolulu.

HONOLULU, May 6.—Claudius McBride, an attorney, was saved from being shot by United States District Attorney Jeff McCarn in the Federal courtroom yesterday through the quick action of a boy witness.

McCarn and McBride were opposing attorneys in a Federal trial. During a quarrel, McCarn thrust a revolver against McBride's breast and pulled the trigger. The boy leaped between them. His thumb caught the pistol hammer and prevented the explosion of the cartridge. McCarn surrendered to the police and was charged with assault to commit murder.

The Twinkler is angry!

The New St. Louis Twinkler is angry because the advertising statement for April, which we printed, shows them to have made a loss over last year of 10,200 lines. And so it does.

Our statements never include advertising space given by newspapers in exchange for merchandise which they sell to the public in order to swell circulation by giving papers free to guessers in circulation schemes. Nor do they include the cheap city contract legal advertising which must be given to the one paper which can swear to a circulation of 3000 daily if it will bid so low, as the Star did, that real newspapers can't compete. We admit their gains in these two classes of advertising, also admit the truth of their affidavit of 3000 circulation and admit that they have discontinued the printing of a Sunday paper. 11 FREEHOLDERS SIGN DRAFT OF NEW CHARTER; 2 REFUSE

Spencer, as Acting Chairman, Affixes Signature First—Board to Ask for Special Election on June 30.

Three official copies of the proposed new city charter were signed by 11 of the 13 members of the Board of Freeholders at 1 p. m. Wednesday, thus completing the work of the board, which was elected April 1, 1913. The official copies of the charter will be delivered to Mayor Kiel by the Freeholders in a body. He will keep one copy, and transmit a copy to the Council, and another to the House of Delegates.

Chairman Jesse McDonald and Thomas J. Rowe declined to sign the charter. Selden P. Spencer signed as vice and acting chairman of the board. The official copies also were signed by Secretary Wilbur B. Jones and former Judge Henry S. Caulfield, counsel.

The board members tried to convince Judge McDonald that it was his duty as chairman of the board to sign the charter for its proper certification to the Mayor and the Municipal Assembly, despite the fact that he did not approve the instrument.

Unnecessary, Says McDonald.

Judge McDonald took the view that it was not necessary for its proper certification for him to sign.

Louis P. Aloe suggested that the board adopt a resolution requesting McDonald and Rowe to sign to make sure that the certification was sufficient. The two members declared that they would not, even if the resolution were passed, sign the charter.

Their objection to the charter is to its legislative scheme. The charter provides that there shall be but one house of legislation to be known as the Board of Aldermen. Each of the 28 wards will be entitled to one member, but all members will have to be nominated at large and elected at large. McDonald and Rowe would have accepted this scheme if the number of Aldermen had been reduced to 14, but when the board by a vote of 7 to 5, with one not voting, adopted the provision for 28 members, Rowe and McDonald decided that they could not accept the charter containing what they considered a fatal deficiency.

Want Election on June 30.

After Spencer had signed the charter, it was signed by 10 other members in this order: Louis P. Aloe, Thomas J. Dalton, Edward Flad, Frederick D. Gardner, Charles Hertenstein, Charles Langeman, Samuel Rosenfeld, Charles W. Rutledge and Clinton E. Udell.

The Freeholders will ask the Municipal Assembly to call a special election June 30 to submit the charter to a vote of the people. Under the State Constitution, the Board of Election Commissioners requires only 32 days' notice for calling a special charter election, while in other matters 70 days is necessary.

As soon as the special election is called an active campaign will be started for the adoption of the charter. Many organizations already have indorsed the charter, and made provision for the appointment of campaign committees. The Freeholders ordered that 75,000 copies of the charter be printed for distribution among the voters.

A majority of the votes cast at the special election is all that is required to pass the charter. For charter amendments, a three-fifths majority is necessary.

As Wednesday's meeting was regarded as the last official meeting of the Freeholders, the members decided to celebrate what they considered an historic occasion by having photographs made of themselves. Louis P. Aloe made arrangements for the photographer, and promised to present to each member a framed copy of the photograph.

The board did not adjourn sine die, but maintained its organization to meet any emergency that might arise. The board probably will not adjourn officially until after the special charter election.

Had Mayor Kiel been in his office when the charter was signed, the members would have gone from their offices in the Municipal Courts Building to his office in the city hall to present the official copies to him. But the Mayor had gone out to visit some of the city institutions, and it was necessary to postpone the official presentation.

Secretary Jones had specially printed copies, similar to the official copies, prepared for each member of the board. Although Rowe refused to sign the official copies, he signed most of the souvenir copies for the other members. Judge McDonald declined to sign the souvenir copies.

Board Prepares Statement.

The board is preparing a statement to voters, describing briefly the principal features of the new charter.

The board held 81 meetings in the preparation of the charter, which contains 78 printed pages. It is only half the length of the present charter, and contains 30 less pages than the charter submitted in 1910.

The board had an appropriation of $25,000, but has spent to the present time only $11,714.10. Of this sum, $1,068.72 was for publication of the charter in newspapers doing the city printing, in accordance with the ordinance authorizing the election of the board.

Moving pictures were made of the board members leaving the Municipal Courts Building. These pictures will be used at the moving picture shows throughout the city in the charter campaign.

SENORITA SNIPER GETS SIX-MONTH PRISON SENTENCE

Sought to Avenge Brother's Death—Informer, a Suitor, Put Out of Court.

By ROBERT H. MURRAY.

A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World at Vera Cruz.

VERA CRUZ, May 6.—Amanda Alvarido, straight-backed, sullen-eyed, comely, almost handsome of feature, faced Lieutenant-Colonel Theodore P. Kane in the provost court, defiantly admitting that she had tried to kill marines from a window in her house in the Calle Emperan.

"Why did you want to kill Americans? We are your friends," said her Judge.

"Because I am a Mexican woman," she replied.

From her haughty bearing, she is known as La Pavo, "the turkey."

Seeks to Avenge Brother.

"Your pigs of soldiers killed my brother," she exclaimed. "He was not fighting; he was only a boy, but you killed him. I tried to kill 10 to pay for his life, but I could not shoot straight enough. You may do with me as you wish, but I shall ever be sorry that they arrested me before I had my revenge for Felipe's life."

For several days sentries on post near Senorita Alvarido's house had been annoyed by sniping, one bullet striking the canteen of a marine. Careful watch established the fact that shots were fired from the house occupied by the young woman, who comes of respectable family.

Monday night a squad of marines rushed the house and caught the girl. A Mauser rifle lay on a table; empty cartridge shells were on the floor and powder stains were on her fingers. Investigation showed that during the fighting which attended the occupation of the city, Felipe Alvarido was struck and killed by a stray bullet.

His sister, who sought to avenge his death, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment, but this will probably be reduced, in view of the attendant circumstances.

Jilted Suitor Is Put Out.

During the hearing Andraes Gonzales, whom she is said to have jilted, volunteered to testify against Senorita Alvarido. He asserted that he knew at least eight Americans had fallen before her rifle. This is doubted, and Lieutenant-Colonel Kane ordered that Gonzales be put out of the courtroom, to teach him gallantry, and not to bear tales against women.

Rosa Martinez, an elderly woman, was also before Lieutenant-Colonel Kane on suspicion of having been a sniper. The charge was not proved, but as rifles were found in the woman's dwelling she was sentenced to six months' imprisonment for having concealed weapons in her house.

FUNSTON ORDERED TO EXTEND HIS LINES AS FAR AS NECESSARY

General, Having a Free Hand, Will Build Fortifications—Reports Mexicans Are Destroying Railroad.

MEDIATORS PREPARE TO MOVE TO CANADA

Authoritative Announcement Made That No Further Effort Has Been Made to Bring Carranza Within Scope of Negotiations.

Bryan Says We Have Not Agreed to Mediate Any Specific Question

WASHINGTON, May 6.

SECRETARY BRYAN made this statement today regarding the attitude of the United States toward the A B C mediators:

"No agreement has been made by the United States or any of its officials to mediate any question. The United States accepted the proffer of the good offices of the Republics of Argentina, Brazil and Chile to endeavor to bring about a peaceful settlement of the conflict between the United States and Mexico.

"The United States has entered into no agreement with Huerta or any faction in Mexico for an armistice. The United States assumed there would be a cessation of hostilities during the period of mediation."

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Orders have gone from the War Department to Gen. Funston, it was learned today, authorizing him to extend his lines about Vera Cruz as far as "in his judgment it is necessary."

This, it was explained, gives the American commander virtually a free hand in dealing with the situation at Vera Cruz, and it was said that the American lines would at once be extended and heavy fortifications thrown up.

It was explained that changes in the placing of the American troops would not include any movement that could be considered as an advance from Vera Cruz.

Gen. Funston intends to shift his troops from Vera Cruz to various points between the city and Tejar pumping station, nine miles from the port, to protect the water supply.

Detachments of the Federals are located in a semi-circle about 25 miles from the coast and one part of their line extends to a point several miles nearer Vera Cruz than the pumping station.

Gen. Funston advised today that the location of these forces has exposed the station to constant danger, because a Federal detachment might cut off the Americans at Tejar and destroy them before reinforcements could be sent from Vera Cruz.

Gen. Funston also reported today that he had no definite information regarding movements of Mexican troops and said he thought it probable that such concentration as the Mexican forces had made, was only for the purpose of defending the lines of railroads to Mexico City in case the United States troops should advance. Mexican natives reported that the track of the Interoceanic Railroad was being torn up.

It is probable that Funston will make his headquarters at Tejar and that several hundred bluejackets will be landed from the battleships to protect the city.

There was nothing to show here that Gen. Funston had not already moved his troops out of the city. It is apparent that there has been stricter censorship at Vera Cruz on any news touching on military movements for the last 48 hours, although dispatches on other subjects were permitted to come through.

The army has taken over the control of the cable station at Vera Cruz from the navy. While the latter was in charge dispatches to the department and press dispatches came through promptly. Now even the navy officials' dispatches are behind time. War Department officials, however, see nothing alarming in this lack of news.

Definite Course Planned.

A definite course of action has been outlined in the event of a resumption of hostilities at Vera Cruz, and the extension of the campaign toward Mexico City. The War Department has gone ahead steadily with its plans for sending to Vera Cruz two more brigades of regulars. Preparations have been completed for the mobilising of a strong army on the Mexican border at El Paso and Eagle Pass.

The fact that the railroads to the capital are being mined and that the Mexican Federals daily are strengthening their position is causing uneasiness and army officers believe that if a move is to be made on Mexico City it should begin with as little delay as possible.

Mediators Seeking Quarters in Canada for Deliberations

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The South American mediators, who are seeking an adjustment of the Mexican trouble, were perfecting plans today for removal of the conference to Niagara Falls, Canada, on May 18. Telegrams were sent to a leading hotel there, now closed, asking if its opening would be advanced, so as to accommodate them. If this is arranged, the headquarters will be established there. Otherwise a hotel or private cottage, for which negotiations are under way, will be obtained.

The mediators will leave here Thursday, May 14, to arrange preliminaries for their opening sessions on the following Monday. The party, including secretaries, stenographers and other officials, will number about 15, not including the United States and Huerta delegates and those of Carranza, should he finally come into the deliberations.

The mediators, after convening, went over to the State Department and held a short session with Secretary Bryan. Later one of them announced that they had definitely decided to proceed without Carranza. The possibility that the attitude of the chief of the Constitutionalists was merely temporary, was considered doubtful by the mediators.

Before the mediators went to see Secretary Bryan, Secretary Lane called at the Argentine Legation, where negotiations are proceeding. He would say nothing of his visit, but it was recalled that the President had consulted him and Secretary Bryan on phases of the mediation and the names of American delegates.

The language of the announcement that Niagara Falls, Canada, had been chosen for the scene of the exchanges was interpreted by some observers as indicating that the envoys had not abandoned hope of attempting to compose the entire Mexican problem, despite Carranza's assertion that any attempt to take up the republic's international troubles was beyond the range of diplomatic action.

Delay in Naming U. S. Delegates.

Huerta's delegates were expected to start from Mexico City this week, but the members of the United States mission have not yet been appointed. President Wilson resumed consideration of many names today, seeking trained diplomats to handle the delicate questions to be discussed in the Canadian border city.

The death of two of the American wounded at Vera Cruz, Harry Pulliam, fireman, and Clarence R. Hirshberger, seaman on the battleship Utah, bringing the mortality list up to 19, was announced yesterday. The hospital ship Solace has been ordered to take its wounded to New York and Boston so that the sick may be in a cooler climate.

Three American Offenders Deported From Vera Cruz.

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, May 6.—The food situation in Vera Cruz has become slightly easier because, despite the efforts of Mexican Federals to intimidate them, the farmers in the vicinity of Vera Cruz can not withstand the temptation of good prices in American gold. Chickens and eggs are coming in and some fresh vegetables. There is no milk and will not be.

The military court has a full calendar. Many snipers are awaiting trial charged with murder, while other criminal prosecutions are springing up from day to day.

Three Americans were deported yesterday on the San Marcos, which left for Galveston. They are Braun, the young stowaway who came down on the transport Sumner; U. R. Mulcahy and a man named Hall. Young Braun escaped arrest aboard the transport and got ashore, where he promptly started a battle of his own with a pacific Mexican citizen by punching the citizen in the nose. The provost guard prevented a riot and Braun goes back.

Mulcahy is the American who borrowed a file of sailors to aid in uncovering arms. He went to a gambling house and demanded 5000 pesos from the proprietor as a price of an unlimited concession. The gambling house was closed the next day and the proprietor protested. Mulcahy was tried by the Navy Court and sentenced to five years' imprisonment. Gen. Funston remitted the sentence, but ordered the man out of the country. He went aboard the San Marcos with a guard and the Galveston authorities have been informed of his coming.

Mexican Celebrator Chased Across Line With a Whip.

CALEXICO, Cal., May 6.—The "Cinco de Mayo," a national holiday on the anniversary of the defeat of the French, passed quietly here on the whole, although one drunken Mexican rode through the streets of Calexico cursing the "Gringoes" and brandishing a whip.

O. M. Prewitt, a Deputy Sheriff on horseback, armed only with a whip, chased the Mexican across the line, where the Mexican authorities hustled him to jail.

AMERICAN TRIES TO OUST COUNTESS FROM OFFICE

Maine Woman Thinks 20 Years as International Council President Is Enough.

ROME, May 6.—The second day's meeting of the International Council of Women, under the presidency of the Countess of Aberdeen, developed an effort to depose the Countess from this position, which she has held for 20 years.

Mrs. May Wright Sewall, an American delegate from Maine, distributed to the delegates a book entitled, "The Genesis of the International Council of Women," which was the subject of heated discussion at the morning session. The purpose of the book, it was declared, was to bring about the removal of the Countess.

Mrs. Sewall is at the head of a faction favoring "rotation" in the presidency. She maintains that the principle of the organization cannot be international if one nationality always is represented in the chief office. She declares that 20 years under the Countess of Aberdeen gradually has transformed the International Council into a purely English organization.

REBELS ATTACK HUERTA TROOPS NEAR TAMPICO

Admiral Badger Reports That Neither Side Appears to Have Gained Advantage.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Admiral Badger reported to the Navy Department today that Constitutionalist forces made a sharp attack yesterday on Mexican Federal troops in the northwestern portion of the province of Vera Cruz and to the west of Tampico. There were no decisive results as far as he could learn, the report stated.

Admiral Badger's report said further that Admiral Mayo informed him of persistent rumors, current about Tampico, that Gen. Villa was on his way with reinforcements for the Constitutionalists and intended "to take and burn the city."

Admiral Mayo stated that he did not put the slightest faith in the truce supposed to have been arranged between the Constitutionalists and Federalists at Tampico. There had been no trouble recently in the oil well district, he added.

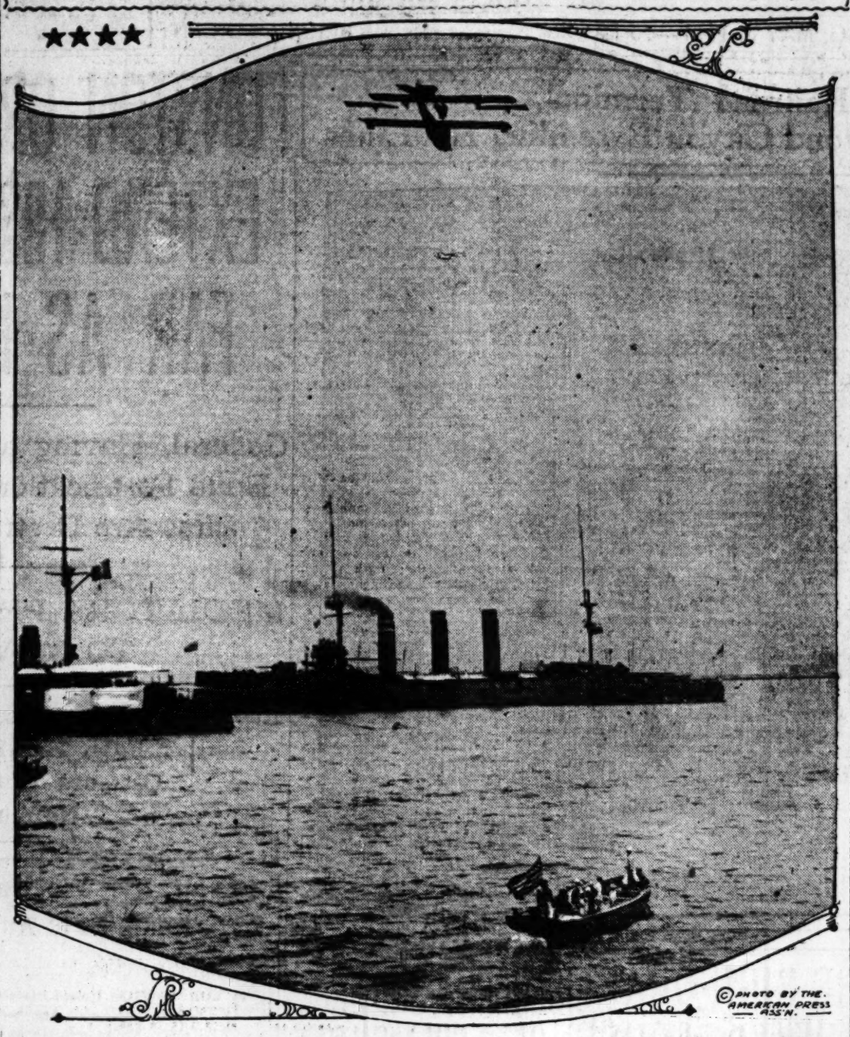

LICENSE FOR SALOON NEAR BALLPARK DENIED

Sodality Objections Cause Signers to Withdraw, Leaving Petition Not Mandatory.

A license for a saloon at 3847 Laclede avenue, opposite the main entrance of the Federal League Baseball Park, was refused, Wednesday, by Excise Commissioner Anderson. The petitioner, E. P. Schulte, had at first a mandatory petition, but because of the objection made by the Young Men's Sodality of St. Francis Xavier's Church to the proposed saloon, some of the signers withdrew, leaving less than enough to make the petition mandatory.

Anderson makes it a rule to grant no petitions which are not mandatory. He was obliged to grant a license recently at 3939 Laclede avenue, and an application for a license at 3901 Laclede avenue is pending.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Probable adjournment of Congress by July 10 was predicted today by Senator Kern, Democratic leader of the Senate, after a White House conference at which the President and Senators Kern, Hoke Smith and O'Gorman discussed the legislative program. Senator Kern said he believed the Panama Canal tolls repeal bill would be disposed of within two weeks. He was hopeful the administration antitrust program and the rural credits bill would be reached.

Senator Newlands, chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, which is in charge of the antitrust bill, conferred with the President and said an antitrust measure would be passed in "some form" before adjournment.

GEN. HUERTA IS RUGGED, PLAIN AND DEMOCRATIC

Son of Late Secretary Hay Says Dictator Is Steady Drinker, Cognac Being His Favorite.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Clarence L. Hay, son of the late Secretary of State John Hay, who has arrived in Washington from Mexico City, has given the following views on Gen. Huerta:

"Gen. Huerta is a short, rugged man. He is almost entirely bald, although I don't know his age. He is very near-sighted and always wears a pair of heavy eyeglasses. He is active and energetic, and whenever he talks he speaks with great force. He is democratic in his manner and has always been a good mixer among the common classes. Until recently Gen. Huerta never wore a silk hat or frock coat. He preferred a brown snuff-colored suit, which he wore on all occasions. Of late, however, he has taken to the conventional dress which, he says, makes him appear more dignified. He prides himself that he is an Indian.

"Gen. Huerta is a fairly steady drinker. His favorite drink is cognac. Since he became President, however, I have not heard a single American in Mexico City say they ever saw him drunk. But Gen. Huerta has a tremendous capacity. He takes many drinks each afternoon at various places in Mexico City, but I wouldn't class him as a drunkard by any means, although he drinks a great deal. He has been doing so for years, however, and seems capable of handling himself in the circumstances. He has been keyed up to a highly nervous pitch since he became President and has been in need of some stimulant to quiet his nerves.

"Huerta has played a beautiful game despite the fact that all the odds were against him.

"The Americans in Mexico have not asked for intervention. All they have desired is a reasonable security for their investments. From my six months' stay in Mexico City I learned that Americans regard Huerta as the strongest man who could have been chosen for President. They believe that, without interference, he would have been found fully capable of looking out for their interests in the country. Americans in Mexico City, or a vast majority of them, look upon Gen. Villa as a bandit and a cut-throat. That is the impression they have formed of him, although he may be a very estimable gentleman.

"I have not come to Washington to confer with officials about conditions in Mexico City. I have not been asked to give my impressions about conditions there. I came to Washington because my home is here."

MISSOURI ORDERED TO RECRUIT MILITIA TO A WAR FOOTING

Medical Reserve Corps Lieutenants Report That They Are Ready for Active Duty.

JEFFERSON CITY, May 6.—Orders to recruit the five regiments of the Missouri National Guard up to their full war strength were received from the War Department by Adjutant-General O'Meara.

When the regiments are fully recruited each will have 12 companies of 150 men, which, with the noncommissioned officers and band of 28 men, would bring each regiment to 1836, exclusive of the command staff.

The carrying out of the War Department's order will mean the placing of the Missouri National Guard on a war footing of 9180 men besides officers. There are now about 3800 fully equipped guardsmen.

Twenty St. Louis physicians and surgeons who bear the rank of First Lieutenants in the medical reserve corps of the United States Army have been requested to hold themselves in readiness for active duty in case the Government is drawn into war with Mexico.

Instructions came to the St. Louisans from Surgeon-General William Gorgas, who exterminated mosquitoes in the Panama Canal Zone. Gen. Gorgas called upon the local surgeons to indicate on blanks he submitted the kind of duty preferred, and whether they were in readiness to serve. All are said to have indicated that they are ready to go to the front or to mobilization camps.

The medical reserve corps was authorized several years ago. Its purpose was to supplement the regular army surgical force. Reputable physicians were named on the corps in all the larger cities of the country, where they have organized. In St. Louis Dr. Harvey Mudd is president of the body and Dr. W. H. Luedde is secretary.

The corps, in time of peace, receives many courtesies from the Government and from army officers. Each surgeon after his appointment, receives a commission signed by the President of the United States and the Secretary of War and approved by the United States Senate. Each receives all the literature disseminated by the Government to the regular army surgeons; each is eligible to the Army and Navy Club in Washington.

When appointed the corps men were named as First Lieutenants, with assurances that their rank would be advanced in case they were pressed into active service.

Among those belonging to the corps here are: Drs. John Young Brown, Malvern Clopton, George W. Cale, W. A. Hardaway, W. C. G. Kirchner, H. J. Scherck, M. J. Seelig, Armand Ravold, Ellsworth Smith, E. Lee Dorset, Virgil Loeb, Clarence Loeb and H. McClure Young.

4 MILITARY INSTRUCTION CAMPS FOR STUDENTS

Plans for Schools Will Not be Abandoned Because of Mexican Crisis.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—There will be no suspension or abandonment of the elaborate plans of the War Department for holding the students' military instruction camps this summer, because of the Mexican crisis. In fact, the Mexican trouble has served to emphasize the necessity for such preparations of the youths of the country in the opinion of the General Staff.

Many letters of inquiry are being received from heads of educational institutions and from individual students. Answers are being returned that the summer camps for student instruction will be held at Asheville, N. C., July 6 to Aug. 7, inclusive; at Burlington, Vt., and Ludington, Mich., during the same period, and at Monterey, Cal., from June 26 to July 31.

Applicants for instruction are requested to present their papers to the department at the earliest possible moment.

MAAS' OVERTURES TO VILLA MET BY HOT DENUNCIATION

Federal General's Letter to Rebel Chief and the Latter's Reply Made Public.

ALLIANCE WAS PROPOSED

But Constitutionalist Leader Answered That Huerta's Plans Were "Diabolical."

TORREON (via El Paso, Tex.), May 6.—Official correspondence between Gen. Maas, commander of the Federal forces in the vicinity of Vera Cruz, and Gen. Villa, the fighting chief of the rebel army, was made public today. Gen. Maas wrote, without avail, asking that the rebels join the Federals in repelling the "invasion" of United States forces.

The letter follows:

"To Gen. Francisco Villa:

"I have received instructions to notify the revolutionary chiefs that American intervention in Mexico is an accomplished fact. The United States of the North have committed a grave offense against Mexico by disembarking troops in Vera Cruz April 21, and by taking similar action at Salina Cruz two days later. This act alone constitutes the initiation of war, and this is the supreme moment to call on the patriotism of all Mexicans to present a united front and forget our differences in the intense love of a country of which we are possessed. We can consider the enemy only as a foreigner, who in the most unjust and ignoble manner has stepped upon the holy soil of our fatherland.

"It is well known that the North Americans, following the hypocritical and undignified conduct which they have used in all cases of intervention, have declared that they will not fight against the revolutionists, but only against the Government, but it is clearly to be seen that this conduct is for no other purpose than to keep us divided and make easier their conquests. As Mexican patriots we should not permit foreign nations to mix in our internal affairs.

"We therefore call upon our brothers to rally to the common cause for the defense of the national integrity. You could not more nobly yield your present position than for the purpose of rallying to the cause of the whole of Mexico that we may all march together against the invading Yankees. I have such faith in your patriotism that I do not doubt that the forces of your command will rally to fight the invasion of the Americans.

"I reiterate to you assurances of my distinguished consideration.

"J. MAAS,
"General in Chief of the Division of the Brave, Saltillo, April 28."

Villa Denounces Maas.

Gen. Villa's answer follows:

"In answer to your letter of April 28, in which, in accordance with your instructions, you invite me to march with you against the foreign invaders of our country, I would say that I understand your actions fully and also the present diabolical machinations. I know that as an accomplice you took part in the infidelity and treason of February, 1913 (Madero's death). This is perfectly well understood and you should know that we cannot pardon it, and also know that it will be the cause of your ruin.

"I therefore give you this answer only because your official request and my answer are historical documents, and I owe to posterity an explanation of my conduct.

"I know that the clentificos, by various processes, have up to this time sought to bring about North American intervention in Mexico. It is known without doubt that the coming of the Americans was desired and provoked by you. The manner in which you have excited internal troubles, and then called on all Mexicans to help fight the external troubles, is clear to all the world.

"Gen. Huerta and you did not show wisdom when you were converted into instruments of the clentificos and brought about the assassination of President Madero. Vice-President Pino Suarez and some other liberal Democrats because you did not realize that the blood of the heroes who started the Democratic movement in 1910 would cause a civil war which would lead to your ruin.

No Union With United States.

"Now you desire to provoke a foreign war to save yourselves from the disaster coming from the civil conflict. You show even less wisdom, when you pile up mountains of machinations and lies which will crumble about your ears.

"You have sought to make this union between yourselves and the Constitutionalists who are under arms and with the pretext of a foreign war you seek to arm many Mexicans, whose sympathies are not with you, but whose patriotism you expect to exploit without reflecting that you are about to arm a people who in justice would chastise your crimes. These same people, when they discover you are an assassin of Democracy, you seek to win over by starting a war against a foreign nation to serve your personal interests and those of your party.

"It will soon be proven that the satanic declarations which you traitors to the fatherland have made in stating that we have formed a union with the North Americans is a stupid assertion which will cost your existence and bring to your families an eternal shame.

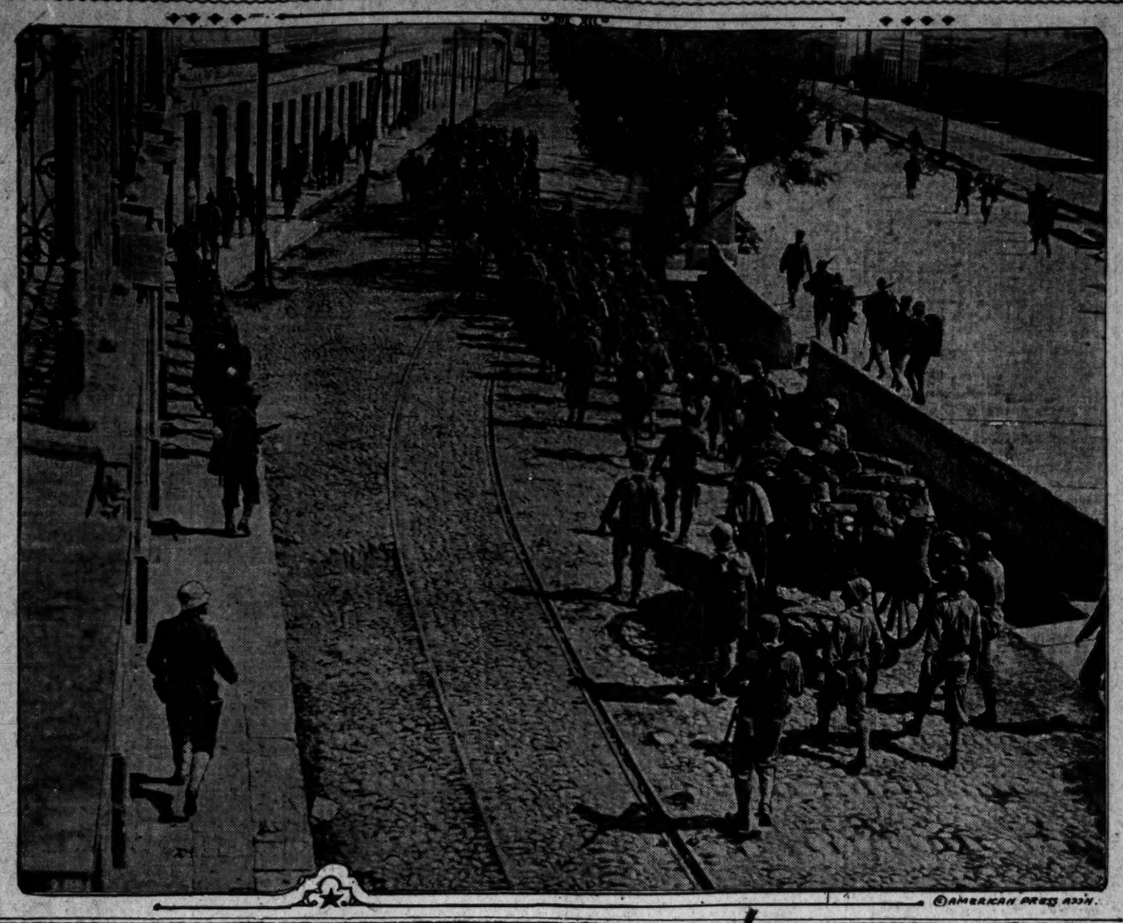

"The Constitutionalists have the desire to do all possible compatible with the national dignity to avoid a foreign war, but if we are not able to avoid it, we will face two enemies, the powerful stranger and the depraved compatriots.

"For the constitution and reform.
"FRANCISCO VILLA, General in Chief.

VILLA'S FORCES TO ATTACK TWO CITIES AT ONCE

He Will Assail Saltillo's 10,000 Defenders; Herrera to Move on San Luis Potosi.

TORREON, Mexico, May 6.—A detachment of Villa's troops, stationed here, entrained today for Monterey, which will be the base of operations in the rebel campaign against San Luis Potosi and Saltillo, simultaneously. The troops which left today will detrain at Hipolito, whence they must march overland to Monterey.

Villa has decided to lead the attack on Saltillo, while Gen. Maclovio Herrera and Gen. Benavides will command a strong force against San Luis Potosi, 250 miles of desert separates the two cities.

The attack on San Luis Potosi will have the effect of practically isolating the Saltillo garrison. Should the Federals under Gen. Maas be unable to hold Saltillo, nothing would remain for them but surrender or death by hunger and thirst if they were cut off from San Luis Potosi by an attacking force there.

The country between the two points is almost barren and if the railroad were cut to the south, as Villa probably intends, only a few fugitives would have a chance of making their way through the stretch of desert on horseback or on foot. It was in this terrible place that 10,000 of Santa Ana's 18,000 troops perished after his defeat by Gen. Taylor in 1847.

16,000 Troops in Two Cities.

There are approximately 10,000 men in the garrison at Saltillo now, and about 6000 in San Luis Potosi. It is believed here that the loading of troops reported to have taken place at Saltillo was for the purpose of reinforcing the San Luis Potosi garrison, in expectation of a simultaneous attack.

Gov. Chao of Chihuahua Ousted and Imprisoned by Villa.

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., May 6.—On telegraphic orders from Gen. Villa at Torreon, Gen. Manuel Chao has been removed from office as Governor of the State of Chihuahua and put in prison. Silvestero Terrazas was, at the same time, removed from office as Secretary of State. This puts Villa in supreme control of the State of Chihuahua and to that extent weakens Carranza's authority.

Gen. Trinidad Roderigues has been named as Governor of the State and Augustin Labansadt as the successor of Terrazas.

When Villa and Carranza approached a break over mediation, Chao was one of the general officers who sided with Villa in urging that the desires of the United States should be acceded to. The break between him and Villa is said to have resulted from Chao's seizure of a residence that Villa had ordered should be exempt.

Upon the confiscation of this property, its owner complained to Villa. The latter, in his direct way, ordered Chao to appear before him with an explanation. Chao sent a clerk from the Statehouse with the refusal to appear, in which he indicated that he was under the direction only of the first chief of the revolution, and as a civil Governor, not amenable to military orders.

Villa thereupon went straight to Chao's office and declared that where property was concerned military authority superseded civil rule. Chao maintained his original attitude and a personal encounter ensued, Villa striking Chao with his fists.

The quarrel between Villa and Chao occurred 10 days ago. Since then Villa has been unrelenting in his determination to obtain the removal of Chao, despite the fact that Carranza favored his retention in office, together with his Secretary of State. Whether Villa carried his point by threats, persuasion or promises no one in authority will say.

Villa has still one dangerous enemy—Gen. Maclovi Herrera, who is credited with having recently made an attempt on Villa's life by sending a soldier to shoot him. The soldier fired once and was then overpowered and killed.

Herrera is said to have become disgruntled because he received only 7000 pesos of the 3,000,000 he declared Villa obtained through the capture of Torreon and the confiscation of cotton and other property, including a considerable quantity of gold bullion. Herrera demanded more and was given 20,000 pesos, but made made still another demand. This Villa refused flatly, and a personal quarrel was precipitated.

Villa Promises to Execute Huerta Within Three Weeks

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 6.

"I WILL take Mexico City, capture Huerta and execute him in three weeks time, if the United States troops do not interfere."

This promise was made today by Gen. Villa in a telegram to Adolfo Corillo, Consul in Los Angeles for the rebels.

"Nothing can stop me now," Villa wired. "I can see only the downfall of Huerta and his death. The capture of Mexico City by me will mean the establishment of peace throughout Mexico forever. The dictator must fall."

LIGHTNING INTERRUPTS PASTOR'S WEDDING FETE

A bolt of lightning interrupted a wedding dinner in the study of the German Evangelical Salem Church at Clayton Tuesday night in celebration of the marriage of the Rev. Karl F. Pfeiffer, pastor of the church, and Miss Selma Frank, 29, of Jerusalem, Palestine, causing a temporary panic among the dozen guests.

The windows in the room were shattered and a picture of the bridegroom was knocked from the wall. After the rain, hail and thunder had subsided, the guests recovered their calm and the dinner was resumed.

The bride arrived from Egypt Monday, after a 7000-mile trip, and is the daughter of a wealthy merchant of Jerusalem.

CARTRIDGES FOR VILLA SMUGGLED BY WOMEN

EL PASO, Tex., May 6.—Military officers and customs inspectors enforcing the embargo on arms and ammunition along the border have been compelled to install women aids at all crossings near here, to check the smuggling of cartridges across the line.

The closedown shawls of the feminine adherents of Villa and Carranza, it is said, have covered enough cartridges to fill many a bandolier.

All women crossing the international bridges into Mexico are now carefully searched.

U. S. COMMANDER URGES STRIKERS TO SURRENDER ARMS

Major Holbrook Addresses 200 Immigrant Miners in Trinidad Mass Meeting.

TRINIDAD, Colo., May 6.—Pleading with 200 immigrant miners, only a small percentage of whom could understand his sharply spoken English words, Maj. W. Holbrook of the Fifth United States Cavalry today urged in mass meeting at Camp San Rafael that the strikers deliver their arms and ammunition to the United States authorities. After he had gone the group divided and heard interpreters repeat, in some form, the remarks of Maj. Holbrook.

The matter of disarmament, it was announced by William Diamond, union leader, would not be put to a referendum vote of the miners but would be left to the inclination of the individual strikers, who, he said, owned the weapons in their possession.

Maj. Holbrook informed the strikers that the proclamation for disarmament included everybody except those in actual service of the United States. He said that even the Sheriff and police of Trinidad would not be allowed to carry weapons of any sort.

The inquest over the man killed in the fight at Forbes was continued today. Testimony yesterday was to the effect that the attack was begun by strikers.

100,000 SHRAPNEL SHELLS FOR ARMY

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—Orders for 100,000 three-inch shrapnel shells were received last night at the Frankford Arsenal in this city from Secretary Garrison of the War Department.

Col. George Montgomery, in charge at the arsenal, said this was one of the largest orders ever received and that while he had until June, 1915, to fill it, he expected to complete the order before that date.

He issued a call for 150 skilled workmen, in addition to the 1200 already employed, and the plant will be run 24 hours a day, the men working in shifts of eight hours each.

DEFENSE IN OWSLEY TRIAL BEGINS; WIFE NO. 1 NOT CALLED

State Decides Not to Have Divorcee Take Stand Against Widow Who Shot Husband.

With the State's case closed, the defense began the introduction of its testimony Wednesday at the trial of Mrs. Ada Owsley of 1219 Warren street on a second degree murder charge for shooting and killing her husband, Benjamin Owsley, at their home, March 1.

Mrs. Rosa B. Owsley of 3836 Cottage avenue was again in attendance and eager to go on the stand and testify that Mrs. Ada Owsley broke up her home.

The defense scored a point at Tuesday afternoon's session when it obtained from Judge Jones a ruling which made it impossible to put Mrs. Rosa Owsley on the stand as a direct witness for the State.

This ruling was made after Assistant Circuit Attorney McCullen had called as a witness Robert Owsley, son of Mrs. Rosa Owsley and stepson of Mrs. Ada Owsley.

Testimony on Quarrels Ruled Out.

Owsley testified that he had known his stepmother 13 or 14 years and that she and his father were married in Indiana Dec. 28, 1909. For a time he lived with them.

Owsley replied that he had heard his stepmother and his father quarrel in July, 1912, and in February, 1913.

Charles P. Johnson, attorney for Mrs. Owsley, objected to this testimony, on the ground that the quarrels occurred so long ago that they could throw no light on a motive for the shooting. Judge Jones sustained the objection.

Mrs. Annie Williams of 3929 Parnell street testified that until last July she had lived at 1107 Palm street, and that for about two years the Owsleys lived next door at 1105 Palm street. She started to tell of hearing them quarrel, but the Judge made the same ruling as he made on Robert Owsley's testimony.

The State then decided not to introduce Mrs. Rosa Owsley as a direct witness.

Tells of Finding Body.

Patrolman Rohling of the North Market Street Station testified that he visited Mrs. Ada Owsley at the city hospital and that she told him she shot her husband in the back as he was running away.

Patrolman Kraus testified that when he went to the house he found Owsley lying dead and Mrs. Owsley kneeling near him on the floor. A mirror had been broken by a bullet, and another bullet had lodged in the door frame. On the floor was a poker stained with blood. Near it lay Mrs. Owsley's eyeglasses. Furniture in the room was disarranged. Mrs. Owsley seemed dazed and asked that she be taken to the city hospital.

PRESIDENT AT CIRCUS

Enjoys Performance So Much He Stays for "Grand Concert."

WASHINGTON, May 6.—President Wilson threw aside the cares of office last night and went to the circus. He forgot the Mexican question and the administration legislative program while he laughed at the antics of clowns and marveled at acrobatic stunts beneath the big tent. He enjoyed it all so much that he stayed for the "grand concert" at the finish.

With the President were his daughter, Miss Margaret, Miss Helen Bones, Dr. Cary Grayson, U. S. Ne... Senator Hughes of New Jersey, Secretary Tumulty, Thomas Fence and Otto Carmichael.

SENATE DECLINES TO ASK WILSON IF HE BACKS VILLA

Lippitt Resolution Asking President as to Stand, Tabled Without Divisional Vote.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Vigorous criticism of the administration's Mexican policy and a heated debate over the Vera Cruz situation marked the effort of Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island today to bring about action in the Senate on his resolution asking President Wilson if he is supporting Gen. Pancho Villa for next ruler of Mexico. Chairman Stone of the Foreign Relations Committee defended the administration.

The resolution was laid on the table without a record vote.

"The suspicion that our Government is aiding, abetting or even condoning the villainous Villa is so sickening that I have long refused to believe it," said Senator Lippitt, "but the reports that the administration is supporting Villa have continued so long that I have introduced my resolution."

Senator Lippitt spoke of the Vera Cruz incident and the loss of Mexican lives as showing the length to which the administration had gone to keep munitions of war from getting in Huerta's hands.

Stone Criticises Lippitt.

Senator Stone took Senator Lippitt to task and the Rhode Island Senator responded that Senator Stone was placing his words in a false light.

"Oh, I know what the Senator meant," continued Senator Stone. "He meant to charge the President with the death of 200 innocent Mexicans—think of it—innocent Mexicans at Vera Cruz.

"The Rhode Island Senator seems to regard those Mexican snipers who were firing on our boys in violation of all the rules of warfare, as 'innocent Mexicans.' Why, all the country approves of what the President did at Vera Cruz, with the possible exception of the Senator from Rhode Island.

"I neither condone Villa's acts nor do I agree with the Rhode Island Senator, who seems to approve of the acts of Huerta, a man guilty of treason and whose hands are red with the blood of his chieftain.

"The Senator says we were hasty at Vera Cruz because a German vessel was approaching laden with arms and munitions of war for Huerta and his army. I stand here to approve what was done. The President was taking the only means to enforce the ultimatum and make Huerta apologize for what he had done."

Senator Lippitt interrupted: "Does the Senator approve the lifting of the embargo on arms for the rebels in the north of Mexico? They are just as surely to be turned against us."

"The Senator can defend Huerta if he wishes," replied Senator Stone. "He can put his senatorial arms about him and hold him up as one deserving praise. The people who have received these arms have made no demonstration of hostility against the United States and up to this time have maintained the strictest neutrality.

Not to Interfere With Rebels.

"If Carranza and Villa care to prosecute the war they have declared on Huerta I do not believe it is the intention of the administration or of this Congress and with few exceptions of the people of the United States to force war upon them.

"If they continue as they are doing, I confess I see no reason for opening hostilities upon them and I do not think a hostile movement upon them will be made if they attend to their own affairs as they are now doing, and as they declare to be their purpose to do."

Senator Stone insisted that the Lippitt resolution was silly and it was on his motion that it was tabled.

LACK OF FRESH AIR

Causes Rundown Condition. How to Keep Strong.

Statistics prove that the death rate is very much greater in the winter months than in summer, and that the lack of fresh air is largely responsible for this condition.

If the system becomes rundown, blood thin and watery, circulation poor, no appetite, don't dose with drugs, but take our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol, not a patent medicine, as everything in it is named on every package, and if it does not give you a hearty appetite, enrich the blood and create strength, we will return your money; that shows our faith in Vinol.

A case has just come to our attention from Knoxville, Tenn. Miss Carrie King says: "For three years I was all run-down, weak, had no appetite and after all that time I am glad to say Vinol has brought back my health and strength."

Try a bottle of Vinol, on our guarantee.

P. S.—For Eczema of Scalp try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

27 OF CREW OF BURNED STEAMER SAVED, 19 MISSING

Survivors of Columbian, Adrift More Than 50 Hours, Suffer Severely; Steward Is Dead and Others Too Ill to Talk When They Are Picked Up.

EXPLOSION AT NIGHT RUINS THE VESSEL

Some of Men Are Hurled Overboard and Others Into Burning Hold; Three Lifeboats Get Away; Only Two Have Been Found.

SABLE ISLAND, N. S., May 6.—Capt. McDonald and 13 members of the crew of the British Columbian, burned at sea, were saved by the steamer Manhattan. A wireless dispatch to this effect was received from the Manhattan by the Marconi station here early today.

The Manhattan, bound from New York for Antwerp, had been near the scene of the burning of the Columbian for some hours and was known to be searching for boats containing members of the Columbian's crew. Her success was announced in the following message:

"Manhattan picked up one boat of Columbian, Captain and 13 others. One engineer was killed in an explosion and one man was drowned leaving the ship. Manhattan is still searching for other boat."

The rescue, it was added, was made early this morning in 41.19 north latitude and 59.5 west longitude.

A further message from the Manhattan said the boat picked up contained, in addition to the captain, the chief engineer, two officers and the wireless operator.

Search for Third Boat Continues.

Yesterday the Cunard liner Franconia picked up one of the Columbian's boats containing 13 men and the body of Chief Steward Matthews, so that 27 in all have been rescued alive. The other missing boat for which the Manhattan and other steamers are still searching contains the first and second officers and 17 men.

The steamer Columbian, bound from Antwerp for New York, caught fire at sea Sunday night. According to the wireless advices from the Franconia, which rescued the first boat of survivors, the flames spread quickly and were followed by explosions which necessitated the hasty abandonment of the steamer by the crew.

The men got away in three boats, but in their haste were illy prepared for a battle with the seas in open boats. The first survivors, when picked up, had been adrift for 40 hours. They suffered severely. Capt. McDonald's boat, picked up early today by the Manhattan, was adrift for more than 50 hours before help reached them.

Explosion Wrecks Wireless.

The Columbian was about 300 miles south of Cape Race when it caught fire. Capt. McDonald ordered the wireless operator, James Drohan, to send out calls for assistance, but one of the explosions put the wireless apparatus out of commission, cutting off the Columbian from communication with nearby ocean liners which might have gone to the rescue.

With the vessel belching flames and torn by the explosions, it soon became evident that the crew could do nothing to control the fire and the order to abandon ship was given.

Captain of Franconia Tells of Rescue of 13 Men.

BOSTON, May 6.—The Cunard Line today received a report from Capt. Miller of the Franconia regarding the rescue of a part of the crew of the steamer Columbian, which was burned at sea. The wireless message, dated today, was as follows:

"Received wireless from steamer Georgic, 11:24 a. m., May 4: 'Seydlitz passed in 41:27 south, 59:07 west, a large steamer burning all over. Hull high out of water, foremast and funnel gone.'

"At the same time came a wireless from Sable Island requesting me to endeavor to try identify steamer. At 12:15 a. m. I received from the Associated Press: 'Great alarm over Seydlitz report of big ocean liner afire. Rescues by Franconia. Please send dispatch.'

"At that time rumor of rescue was not true.

"On receipt of Georgic's message I changed my course to cross position of burning steamer, arriving there at 3 p. m. Could discern no trace of wreck, but decided to encircle position at six miles, and at 3:30 p. m. sighted a boat on starboard bow. Being already prepared, the occupants thereof were taken on board in a few minutes. The boat contained 13 men and a corpse lying awash in the bottom of the boat.

"The survivors had used a trousers leg from the corpse on the end of a boat hook for a distress signal. The survivors were in a state of extreme exhaustion and mental collapse. Some had been burned by fire.

"They had been adrift 40 hours. Six were put under doctor's care in the hospital and the others were given brandy and soup, bathed in hot water and put to bed. They immediately fell asleep. Little information was obtained from them.

"The carpenter says the ship was the Columbian sailing from Antwerp, 12,000 tons register. He was asleep and heard the alarm of fire and was coming along the deck, when an explosion occurred amidship under his feet, which blew him overboard. He was picked up by a boat.

"A lamp trimmer's son states that his father was coming forward calling for him when the deck blew up and the lamp trimmer fell into the burning hold. A quartermaster says that Capt. McDonald and several others were getting a third boat out when a big explosion took place. He does not know whether the captain and his boat were saved. The second officer got away with about 24 men, 10 minutes before the boat that was picked up.

"All agree the fire started at midnight, Sunday, from a cause unknown. In half an hour the whole ship, forward and amidships, was in flames, with constant violent explosions. The wireless apparatus was wrecked.

"We are carrying to Boston the body of the chief steward, who was frightfully injured by the explosion and died on Tuesday midday. Our doctor certified that death was due to shock and exposure.

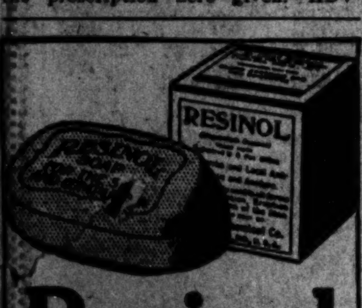

"After picking up boat we made another detour, searching for other boats and deeply regret we could not find them, but many other steamers are hastening to the scene of disaster and we trust will rescue them. Have Marconied all ships to look out for two missing boats."

How You May Throw Away Your Glasses

The statement is made that thousands wear eyeglasses who do not really need them. If you are one of these unfortunates, then these glasses may be ruining your eyes instead of helping them. Thousands who wear these "windows" may prove for themselves that they can dispense with glasses if they will get the following prescription filled at once. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Optona; fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water and drop in one Optona tablet. With this harmless liquid solution bathe the eyes two to four times daily, and you are likely to be astonished at the results right from the start. Many who have been told that they have astigmatism, eyestrain, cataract, sore eyelids, weak eyes, conjunctivitis and other eye disorders, report wonderful benefits from the use of this prescription. Get this prescription filled and use it; you may so strengthen your eyes that glasses will not be necessary. Thousands who are blind, or nearly so, or who wear glasses would have never required them if they had cared for their eyes in time. Save your eyes before it is too late. Do not become one of these victims of neglect. Eyeglasses are only like crutches and every few years they must be changed to fit the ever-increasing weakened condition, so better see if you can, like many others, get clear, healthy, strong magnetic eyes through the prescription here given.—ADV

GEORGE T. PRIEST FINED $5 AS AN AUTO SPEEDER

George T. Priest, son of former Judge H. S. Priest, and member of the law firm of Boyle & Priest, was fined $5 Wednesday, in Judge Kimmel's Police Court on a charge of automobile speeding.

Priest was arrested at Twenty-second and Locust streets at 6 p. m. April 28. A few minutes before his arrest he had left Judge Koerner's court, where he had appeared as special prosecutor in the case of F. X. Schuler, who had run down and killed Dr. Philip C. Scholz while automobiling. Priest in his closing argument had told the jury it was time to make an example of "speed-crazed automobilists." Schuler was acquitted.

Priest was in court but did not testify. The only witness was Motor Cycle Policeman Gierse, who said Priest was running his machine 36 miles an hour. Attorney Matt Holland, counsel for Priest, filed notice of an appeal.

NEGRO DIES, FIVE MADE ILL; POISON IN FOOD SUSPECTED

Boarder Arrested After Mysterious Cases of Illness at Rooming House.

Police investigation into the death of one negro and the serious illness of five negro women and a 9-months-old negro baby, in a rooming house at 3008 Lawton avenue, on the theory that rat poison had been placed in their food, resulted Tuesday in the arrest of Alexander Johnson, a negro, 32 years old, a roomer at that address, who will be held pending further inquiry.

The complainant is Mrs. Gussie Nelson, who conducts the place. She informed the Laclede avenue police that she and another negress, Dolly McQueen, were taken suddenly ill after eating supper on April 12. Dr. J. W. McClellan of 209 North Jefferson avenue diagnosed their ailment as acute gastritis.

On April 16, Mrs. Nelson said, Dolly McQueen, Johanna Manney, Myrtle Johnson, Ruth Beard and Warren Lewis, all roomers, and she herself became seriously ill after eating supper. Dr. William L. Perry of 4452 Kennerly avenue said they were suffering with acute gastritis.

Myrtle Johnson, she said, became suddenly ill again on April 17, after drinking a cup of tea. The package containing the tea was thrown out. Dr. R. C. Haskell of 3500 Lawton avenue made a diagnosis of acute gastritis.

On April 24, Samuel D. Buckner, 58 years old, a negro rooming at the place, became suddenly ill after eating supper. His condition grew serious and on April 30 he died. Dr. Samuel Stafford of 1001 North Jefferson avenue, in a death certificate, fixed the cause as valvular heart disease and acute nephritis.

Mrs. Nelson found a box filled with rat poison in a cabinet drawer. Abe Fry, a druggist at Garrison avenue and Olive street, told the police he sold some rat poison about April 12, but could not recall to whom.

BEAUTY DOCTOR

Says the New Method increases the Bust Measurement and Rounds the Arms and Neck.

(By Clara Belle M.)

(From Chicago Examiner.)

"Speaking from my own personal experience and from observation of many whom I have successfully treated in the past two years, I should say that Madame Moneaux really owed her great success as a beauty specialist to the use of a simple preparation which is used exclusively to develop the bust, arms and neck. I became acquainted with this formula and have used it ever since, much to the delight of patrons.

"If your bust lacks development or firmness you can rely on both increase and firmness from the persistent use of a rare secret compound of oils, known to pharmacists and at toilet counters as medicated venosol. The substance comes in sealed tubes with full directions for home use and is all in all delightful and harmless.

"Apply the treatment regularly for a sufficient time, as the case may require and the most exquisite firmness and rounding development is quite certain to reward any thin, undeveloped woman."—ADVERTISEMENT.

VERNON CASTLES IN AN ACROBATIC TANGO AT ODEON

Suggestiveness Eliminated but Steps Introduced Are Not for Home or Ballroom.

DEVOID OF THE DIPS

Demonstration Graceful—Harold Whitney and Miss Edna Schaufert Amateur Winners.

The Castles—Mr. and Mrs. Vernon—who have tangoed to fame and fortune, glided and whirled for two performances over the Odeon stage Tuesday, and, with the aid of a supporting company of six, exhibited the latter-day dances, from the much discussed Argentine tango to the maxixe of recent craze.

"Our aim is to uplift dancing, purify it and place it before the public in its proper light. When this has been done we feel convinced that no objection can possibly be urged against it on the grounds of impropriety," says a leaflet prepared under Castle management. And the verdict of the audience was that the suggestiveness had been eliminated from the movements of the dancers, but that much acrobatic daring, calculated to move the Puritan to ire, had been introduced.

As modern exponents to society of the new dances, the Castles gave an exhibition of dancing which could not be performed in any public dance hall or ballroom of St. Louis, owing to this same acrobatic tendency, which in the former would be bound to overstep the line of decency, and in the latter would be pronounced devilishly daring, though, as Mr. Castle said to the audience in reference to the public tango contest staged at the close of the performance "People with social position can do as they like."

Not Dances for the Home.

The entire performance itself, with the exception of the tango, possibly, was more of the cabaret than the ballroom order—dances to be seen but not introduced into the home with their difficult steps, twirling evolutions and slightly exaggerated movements of the lower limbs.

Mrs. Castle at all times was garbed in costumes of the cabaret and musical comedy order, and made fulsome display of her shapely Chippendale limbs.

Opening with the one-step, and, gracefully stepping about the stage, the Castles gradually accelerated their movements until, near the close, they showed what wonderful gyrations four athletic limbs could accomplish in unison, and, in the last few steps, Mrs. Castle maneuvered in such a manner that the little black silk garter on the same slender limbs was plainly visible more than an once.

Jean Ott of St. Louis, wife of an artist, who is figuring in the divorce court, and Holton Kerr stepped the hesitation waltz in a manner both pleasing and difficult, many steps being introduced which will hardly be followed because of their intricateness.

Tango in Argentine Costume.

The tango, so ardently defended by the stars of the evening, was shown in Argentine costume. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Castle was seen to full advantage in such costume, and Castle's elongated frame is more sightly when the rear of his nether extremities is hidden from view by the evening coat.

But the movements themselves were graceful to the extreme and devoid of the suggestive touch. Here they really demonstrated what a vulgar dance, deodorized and fumigated, can really be. All jerky movements of the shoulders, the repulsive shaking of the hips and the twistings of the body were absent. In their place was a graceful, undulating swing of the body, which, on Mrs. Castle's part, near the close, was ever so little like the graceful movements of a caged python.

Devoid of the Dips.

Yet a careful appraisement of their movements inclines one to the belief that the Castles are the only one in America dancing the real tango, or what might be termed the Castle step. The general public has danced it far differently, and the version of other exponents of the Argentine craze sets a different pace.

Slow, dignified and devoid of the dips which have so long predominated, it was more of a folk dance, a series of delightful postures, intricate, graceful evolutions to view—but not steps into which the real joy and zest of dancing could be inoculated.

In this number the artists won a complete ovation, and were forced to respond to an encore.

Maxixe Is Introduced.

In the latter half of the program the maxixe, the half and half and the Gavotte were introduced in true cabaret, athletic, acrobatic style. The maxixe, especially beautiful in many movements, was given an athletic touch which the average dancer will never be able to reproduce, and which, with the twirling and evolutions of the feet, would be more at home in musical comedy danced by artists of Castletonian slenderness than at a dress ball by men and women of the usual girth attained between 20 and 40.

The gavotte was given in a manner not calculated to arouse the envy of Pavlowa and Novikoff in the least. As the Castles did it, it was graceful, of course, but one could not but wonder why Mrs. Castle appeared in a gown which in the front reached hardly to the knees, insomuch as full view of the same extremities had been had time and again. Pavlowa did otherwise.

The furlana and the polka were put on by supporting members of the cast, the latter being given in costume on the part of the women, but stepped with the modern touch.

Hints Are Given to Dancers.

The barcarole, staged to Offenbach's score from "Tales of Hoffmann," by Miss Ott and Mr. Kerr, was not put on with the finesse expected of the two who a few minutes previously had won an ovation with their hesitation.

Toward the close of the program Castle gave several hints to dancers, illustrated by his assistants.

The orchestra carried by Castle, Europe's negro aggregation, was extremely disappointing, the brass instruments being very weak.

Negro Drummer Gets Encore.

In the presence of their negro drummer, who was seated on the first apron of the stage to the right, the Odeon probably had its first real vaudeville performance given by a negro. This negro gyrated and evoluted with his arms, his back, his body, and every muscle therein, and proved that, while the Castles had legs, he had arms, limber arms, which could be crossed and twisted and uncrossed again, and still "beat the band." So pleasing was his performance to the audience that, during an intermission, when Europe was directing his dusky followers in a "dance furore," an encore was demanded of the negro who beat the drum.

The Castles really miss a great publicity stunt by not placing his name on the program and advertising him as the real, genuine exponent of drum-beating. By the manner in which he was greeted he could easily hold up the performance if the Castles should fall down.

Following the negro's exhibition, Vernon Castle himself took the negro's place, and, with Europe directing, beat the drum himself, but failed to win the same applause as the negro. He really is better at dancing.

The amateur contest was won by Harold Whitney and Miss Edna Schaufert of 1390A Union boulevard, entitling them to a trip to Castle House and a try at the American amateur championship.

A crowd that filled the Odeon and included hosts of society folk appeared to thoroughly enjoy the evening's entertainment, as shown by the demonstrative applause.

HOUSE LIKELY TO IGNORE SUFFRAGE THIS SESSION

Leaders Also Consider Nation-Wide Prohibition Resolution Will Not Be Reached.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—House leaders were taken by surprise Tuesday, when the Judiciary Committee, before which the Hobson resolution for nation-wide prohibition and the Mondell resolution for woman suffrage had been slumbering for months, were suddenly voted out without recommendation and put squarely before the House.

The measures propose amendments to the Federal Constitution. Advocates of the resolutions now will direct their efforts against the Rules Committee with a view to special rules for consideration in the House, without which the measures may rest at the foot of the calendar and be filibustered against indefinitely. The House leaders consider there is no likelihood of either resolution being added to the administration program for legislation this session of Congress.

OLNEY TELLS WHY HE CANNOT HEAD RESERVE SYSTEM

Letter Says He Would Be Unable to Give Business Entire Attention.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—President Wilson today received Richard Olney's letter, in which the former Secretary of State declined the appointment as governor of the Federal Reserve Board. Mr. Olney's letter, dated Boston, May 4, follows:

"My Dear Mr. President:

"I feel honored quite beyond words by your letter of the 30th ultimo—by the important offer and by the friendly expression of confidence which accompany the offer.

"But the act of Congress which very properly requires each members of the Federal Reserve Board to give his entire time to his work is an insuperable obstacle to my acceptance of the offer. In the course of a long life, I have in various instances assumed duties and undertaken trusts which, from their personal nature, cannot properly be devolved upon others.

"If the conclusion I have come to is a disappointment to you, I greatly regret it. But you can hardly be sorrier than I am; that I am able to do so little in aid of an administration whose first year of achievement makes it one of the most notable the country has ever known.

"Trusting you will not suffer your health and strength to be impaired by the strain of the unusual difficulties now attending the duties of your great office, I am,

"Sincerely yours,

"RICHARD OLNEY."

The President has not yet selected anyone to substitute Olney on the board and is not likely to make a choice for several days as he is again canvassing the field of available men.

It was said by persons close to the President that in all likelihood a New England man would be chosen so that the geographical representation on the board might be symmetrical. C. S. Hamlin, now Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, who comes from Boston, has been mentioned for the place. Secretary Houston of the Department of Agriculture, is also said to be under consideration.

Many administration officials believe that Houston will be the man selected, although the President has several other names under consideration. It is known that the President has wanted to appoint Houston on the board, but did not wish to make any changes in his Cabinet, which he refers to as a "team."

It is unlikely that the governorship of the board will go to the New England man, in event one is selected for the place, but that one of the four men already selected for the board will be its Governor. Either W. P. G. Harding of Birmingham, Ala., or Paul M. Warburg of New York may be selected to head the board.

Banks to Be Organized at Once.

Notice was given by the Reserve Bank Organization Committee today that expedition would be required in effecting the organization of reserve banks. The committee, not later than May 9, will designate five banks in each reserve bank district to execute the organization. To facilitate the incorporation of the reserve banks, the representatives of the five banks designated will meet in the reserve city of their districts as soon as practicable.

This done, the subscribing banks will become member banks and will at once select electors, who in turn will choose the directors of the reserve banks.

The Organization Committee will divide the member banks in each district into groups, the banks in each being of similar financial strength. Two of these groups will be fixed by the Organization Committee and the third by the Federal Reserve Board when it is organized.

BECKER TRIAL BEGINS; CROWD JAMS COURTROOM

NEW YORK, May 6.—Crowds of curious men and women jammed the corridors of the Criminal Courts Building today for the opening of the second trial of Charles Becker, the former Police Lieutenant, and heard of the "strong arm" squad for the murder of the gambler Herman Rosenthal.

Four gunmen recently were electrocuted for the murder, but Becker, the alleged instigator, who also had been condemned, was saved by a ruling of the Court of Appeals.

Mrs. Becker sat with her husband at the counsel table. John Becker, the defendant's brother and a policeman, also was present.

There were early indications that Mr. Whitman intends to go fully into the graft phase of the case. Among the names of prospective witnesses for the State as called out by the clerk were Rhinelander Waldo, former Commissioner of Police; Winfield Sheehan, his secretary; all the heads of the department as constituted at present; the wife of "Lefty Louis" Rosenberg, the dead gunman, and an assortment of gamblers.

The utmost caution will be employed in the selection of the jury. Among other things the talesmen will be asked whether the fact that the gunmen paid the penalty for the crime will prejudice them. It was thought that the remainder of the week would be required to complete the jury and that the trial will last three weeks or a month.

Nearly 100 witnesses have been subpenaed by the State and the defense.

With Most Persons "Moving" Is a Serious Matter.

The house or apartment must be an improvement over the old as to cost or conveniences and general desirabilities. People do not remove merely from the desire to change, but from the desire for BETTERMENT. Thus the "To Let" ads have a peculiar interest to them, should always be full of facts upon which advance judgment may be based, and should be printed in the POST-DISPATCH Big House, Home and Real Estate Directory to reach the largest number of St. Louisans.

It revitalizes, reinvigorates and tones up the entire body and has restored hundreds of sick and despondent people to health and strength. ITCHING ERUPTION ON ARMS AND LIMBS

Became Red and Pimples Formed. Could Not Keep from Scratching. Clothing Irritated It. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Cassoday, Kansas.—"Some two or three years ago the trouble began with irritation and itching on my arms and lower limbs. The affected parts became red and pimples or eruption formed. The itching was so severe that I could not keep from scratching and some sores formed on my face and limbs. The clothing irritated at times and made the itching worse.

"I tried various remedies relieving to some extent the trouble but I continued to suffer and finally the malady spread over my body but was very bad on my head and face and around my waist. The skin became rough and thick and sores formed on my face. The itching and burning often kept me awake at night. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment last winter. I bathed with the Cuticura Soap and hot water at least once a day and used the Cuticura Ointment two or three times a day. In five months I was cured." (Signed) E. Cameron, Sept. 17, 1913.

The regular use of Cuticura Soap for toilet and bath not only tends to preserve, purify and beautify the skin, scalp, hair and hands, but assists in preventing inflammation, irritation and clogging of the pores, the common cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, yellow, oily, mothy and other unwholesome conditions of the skin. Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Widespread Ill Health Caused by the Kidneys

Of all the ills humanity is heir to, nothing is more to be feared than those caused by kidney poisoning, because such ailments invariably come on so stealthily that you are seldom aware of their presence until they have actually spread dangerous diseases throughout the body. There are, however, certain signs by which you can tell whether your kidneys are properly filtering your blood.

If you arise in the morning with dull, aching pains in the back and feel as if your night's rest had not refreshed you; if you are weak, depressed, nervous or irritable; if your head aches, spots appear before your eyes; if your appetite is poor, your complexion sallow; if you have indigestion, biliousness, rheumatic pains and have lost flesh rapidly, you may be sure kidney poisons exist in your blood, and you cannot possibly get well until they are removed. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy has a steady, persistent restoring action on the kidneys that brings perceptible relief almost immediately. It is recognized by many physicians as one of the most dependable medicines in the treatment of kidney and liver diseases. It contains no harmful ingredients. Try it and you'll get well. At all druggists in 25c and $1.00 sizes. Free sample and advice if you write Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 245, Rochester, N. Y.

$150,000 VOTED BY HOUSE FOR ASH HAULING BY CITY

Delegates Substitute That Item for Council Provision for Purchase of Coliseum.

By unanimous vote, the House of Delegates Tuesday night amended the appropriation bill to strike out the $150,000 set aside by the Council, with the approval of Mayor Kiel, for the purchase of the Coliseum, and substituted an item of $150,000 to pay for municipal ash hauling this year. The House concurred in the $2.35 tax rate bill passed by the Council.

The House members, in a discussion of the budget before the meeting, generally concurred in the view that the Coliseum was a "white elephant" that had not paid expenses and would be a burden on the city if acquired. Comptroller Player vigorously had opposed the purchase in conference with the Ways and Means Committees of both branches, but President Lazarus of the Council prevailed upon the Council committee to recommend the purchase.

Wants No Compromising.

The House also amended the budget by eliminating an item of $16,000 for the elevation of houses adjacent to the Tower Grove grade crossing that is being abolished. Chairman McCarthy of the Ways and Means Committee urged this action on the ground that the city had better pursue the policy of paying damages than to compromise in such manner.

Delegate Klug voted negatively on the tax rate bill, but the others voted for it. The tax rate last year was $2.22 on the $100 for all purposes, and the municipal rate has been increased 13 cents this year.

Comptroller Player recommended a tax rate of $2.30, an increase of 8 cents for municipal purposes. The Council planned to raise about $275,000 under the extra 5 cents, of which $150,000 was to be used for the Coliseum purchase and $75,000 for the acquisition of the Payne tract, originally estimated to cost $150,000.

The House allowed the Payne tract item to remain in the appropriation bill, after Chairman McCarthy had informed the members that taxpayers had told him it was their desire to seek an injunction against the purchase if it was attempted, to have the legality of the matter determined.

Clerk Got Options on Tract.

The Payne tract is a strip about 1700 feet long, fronting on Magnolia avenue at the northwest corner of Tower Grove Park. Its acquisition would make the park a perfect rectangle. Options on the many lots comprising the tract have been acquired by Joseph F. Murphy, a clerk in the Tax Assessor's office. He fostered a bill at the last session, which was enacted, authorizing the Mayor and Comptroller to purchase the tract at a price not to exceed $150,000, or about $80 a front foot.

President Lazarus of the Council announced after Tuesday's meeting that if the House concurred in the appropriation bill Tuesday night he would call a special meeting of the Council Wednesday to hasten its passage and enable city employes to draw their April pay this week. When informed that the House eliminated the Coliseum item, Lazarus said he would let the bill take its regular course, and it will come up Friday in the Council.

Mayor Kiel declined Wednesday to say what action he would take when the $2.35 tax rate bill reached him. It is known his preference has been for a $2.30 rate, also that he was disappointed at the House's action in striking out the Coliseum purchase. But some of the city officials fear that, should he veto the $2.35 rate, the Assembly might not fix any new rate, and leave the city to get along another year on a $2.22 rate, which is considered inadequate.

PRISONER ESCAPES AS JUSTICE WEDS COUPLE

Man Accused of Larceny Walks Away During Ceremony; Recaptured After Chase.

Justice of the Peace Pfeiffer of Alton was marrying J. F. Johndrow of West Alton and Mrs. Kate Schumacher of Bunker Hill, Wednesday, when Deputy Sheriff Fitzgerald brought in Harry Pryor, charged with larceny of $4 from his aunt, Mrs. Cora Quisenberry, for a preliminary hearing.

Fitzgerald asked Pfeiffer to look after Pryor while he went in search of the State's Attorney. Pfeiffer continued with the ceremony.

Presently he discovered that Pryor had departed. He hastily finished the ceremony, collected the fee and then hunted up Fitzgerald, who pursued Pryor 16 blocks and arrested him at Sixteenth and Belle streets. The preliminary hearing was postponed to the afternoon.

HAIL DAMAGES FLORISTS' STOCKS AND HOTHOUSES

Lightning Hits Dwelling at 4205 Warne Avenue; Wind Wrecks Students' Circus Tent.

Hail, falling in Tuesday evening's severe rainstorm, caused considerable damage to flowers and plants in the public parks and to florists' stocks. A number of florists reported the breaking of glass in their hothouses. In Shaw's Garden the tulip beds were ruined and other beds were damaged.

William Birkner of 4724 South Compton avenue took to Paul Sander's grocery, 4700 Michigan avenue, a piece of ice which he said was a hailstone and which weighed a pound and a half on the grocer's scales.

The rain and wind damaged the tents of the "Univee Surkuss," planned by Washington University students on Francis Field.

A dwelling at 4205 Warne avenue was struck by lightning, but no member of the two families occupying it was injured.

FIGHT ON 2 BATTLESHIP PROGAM LOST IN HOUSE

Amendments to Build No Vessel and Only One Are Decisively Defeated.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—"Little navy" men in the House yesterday lost their fight against the two-battleship construction program in the annual navy appropriation bill. An amendment by Representative Buchanan of Illinois to provide for one ship was defeated, 148 to 91, while a motion by Representative Witherspoon of Mississippi to eliminate all provision for battleships was swamped, 152 to 41.

Democratic Leader Underwood and Republican Leader Mann, with several other prominent members in the house, voted with the one-ship advocates.

HOUSE ASKS FOR OPINION ON SINGLE BRIDGE ELECTION

Action Taken to Indicate Body Will Vote for It if Baird Ruling Is Favorable.

As a preliminary to action upon the Randall free bridge bond bill, the House of Delegates Tuesday night adopted a resolution asking City Counselor Baird whether a single election under the initiative petition would fulfill the charter requirements.

Baird has announced through interviews published in the Post-Dispatch that one election is all that is required, and the passage of the Randall bill, indorsed by 40,000 registered voters on the initiative petition, will fix the date of this election Nov. 6, as required by the voters' petition.

The House resolution, offered by Delegate Gallagher, also asks Baird whether the proceeds of bonds that might be authorized at such an election would be available for the completion of the spans crossing the river or the Western approach.

Comptroller Player informed the Council members last session, when a similar bill was under consideration, that the bond funds, if authorized, would have to be used solely for the completion of the eastern approaches of the free bridge. Any surplus that existed, Player said, would have to be returned to the sinking fund for the payment of interest and principal of the bond issue.

Indication of House Action.

Gallagher's move is accepted as an indication that when Baird justifies the single election plan, the House Democrats, who have so far fought against the submission of Reber approach bonds, will vote for a single election instead of trying to force a preliminary election.

Gallagher and Delegate Brokaw, leader of the Republican forces, clashed over a motion by Delegate Whalen calling to the attention of Circuit Attorney Harvey, a letter from the Central Trades and Labor Union, requesting that the House demand a grand jury investigation of free bridge matters.

Brokaw moved as a substitute that the letter be filed. Gallagher jumped to his feet and asked Brokaw if he was in a position to explain to the members what was meant by the charges that the Alton & Mississippi project was a grab, and whether there was a combine in the house.

No Action on Loop Franchise.

Brokaw retorted angrily that he made his motion in good faith but would agree to an investigation if any member thought it was necessary. He withdrew his motion and seconded Whalen's motion, which was adopted without opposition. The letter of Secretary David Kreyling of the Central Trades and Labor Union did not name any specific matters in connection with the free bridge to be investigated. It recited that, in view of charges frequently made, it was the duty of the delegates to themselves, their families and constituents, to have an investigation made.

Circuit Attorney Harvey told a Post-Dispatch reporter Wednesday that he was not going to waste the time of his office and the grand jury in making an investigation to give the House of Delegates a clean bill of health. He said unless definite evidence of some kind was presented to the grand jury no action would be taken in response to the resolution.

The house failed to act on the Council bill reducing the 50-year loop franchise of the Southern Traction bill to 25 years, as Chairman Gallagher of the Railroads Committee had predicted. Gallagher's committee reported the bill with a recommendation that it be filed. He then moved to suspend the rules to permit immediate action, but when Delegate Ebrecht, Republican, moved as a substitute that it be permitted to lie over one meeting under the rules, Gallagher withdrew his motion. The House last week passed the Gallagher bill repealing the franchise outright by a vote of 22 to 2.

Farmer Bets on "Hydrant Girl" and Kansas City Police Arrest Three Men.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 6.—Following the complaint of George Roth, a market gardener of Des Moines, Io., that he had lost $5350 in a fake wire-tapping game, the police of Kansas City, Kan., arrested three men, confiscated a cloth blackboard, a telegraph instrument and other paraphernalia. 15TH PEACE PACT SIGNED

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Secretary Bryan and Marquis Cusani Confalonieri, Italian Ambassador, today signed a treaty providing that any question between the United States and Italy which cannot be settled by diplomacy shall be submitted for investigation to an international commission of five members. The period of investigation is fixed at one year, although it may be shortened.

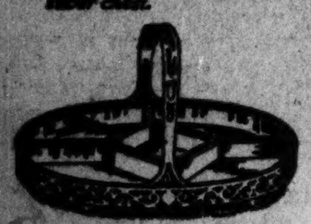

The treaty follows in a general way the terms of a similar pact negotiated by Secretary Bryan with the Netherlands. It is the fifteenth of the Bryan peace treaties.

SYMPHONY BEGINS SPRING TOUR WITH A HOME TRIUMPH

Max Zach's Men and Three Soloists Heard in Fine Program of Worthy Music.

By RIPLEY D. SAUNDERS.

THUNDER, lightning, rain and the Dancing Castles all were combined in opposition to the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra on Tuesday evening, but the loyal lovers of that admirable organization assembled at the Victoria Theater in despite of this Quadruple Alliance of deterrent factors and gave Max Zach and his men a rousing send-off for the Southern tour which will present them in Tupelo, Miss., on Wednesday night, not again to be heard in their home city until May 19.

Quite properly, too, the orchestra and its special soloists, Mrs. Franklyn Knight, contralto; Arthur Hackett, tenor, and Marion Green, baritone—these three to become four on tour by the addition of Mme. Marie Sundelius, soprano, to their number—did their faithful best to reward the friends thus gathered to speed them on their way. As a result of this endeavor, a very pleasant musical evening was enjoyed, notwithstanding the fact that the sullen thunder rumbled an elemental accompaniment to many numbers of the program's offering.

The touring orchestra of 54 instrumentalists was heard in the overture to Massenet's "Phedre," Sibelius' symphonic poem, "Finlandia," and the same composer's heart-touching little "Valse Triste;" two Norwegian and two Hungarian dances by Grieg and Brahms respectively, and the overture to Wagner's "Tannhauser," also in fine accompaniments to several of the song-numbers, the most notable of these being effected in Frederick Stock's orchestration of Schubert's "The Erlking," sung by Baritone Green.

Tenor Hackett sang the Prayer from Massenet's "Le Cid," and, as an encore, Liszt's "Thou'rt Like Unto a Flower," revealing a pleasing and well-handled voice. The aria, "Ah, Ren di mi," from Rossi's "Mitrane," was excellently suited to Mrs. Knight's richly emotional contralto, and, for an encore, this favorite St. Louis singer gave the familiar "Year's at the Spring," with much joyous optimism in its voicing. Baritone Green sang "The Erlking" well, but with an ignoring of its dramatic demands that somewhat diminished its appeal as a story of somber interest, following it with a little encore number of lighter character.

The orchestra's best achievement, it seemed to me, was attained in the "Phedre" and "Tannhauser" overtures, and, also, its interpretation of the Grieg dances was delightful. Max Zach conducted with effective authority.

The orchestra's tour embraces Tupelo, Miss.; Birmingham, Ala.; Meridian, Miss.; New Orleans, La.; Beaumont, Austin, Dallas and Paris, Tex., and Carthage, Mo., at which latter place it closes on May 15.—Hugo Olk and H. Max Steindel, first violinist and first 'cellist of the orchestra, also will appear as soloists on tour.

At the Shubert Theater on Tuesday evening, May 19, the orchestra will be heard in a notable program with Marie Caslova (Mary McCausland of St. Louis, now a famous violiniste), as soloist.

Miss McCausland returns from four years of study under Carl Flesch and other foreign masters of distinction. She recently scored a memorable success with the Thomas Orchestra of Chicago and is under engagement with several of the leading American orchestras for the coming season.

Society

AN important nuptial event of the year will be the marriage of Miss Frances Garneau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Garneau of 25 Washington terrace, and William Maffitt Bates, which will be solemnized, May 16, in the Little Helpers' Chapel, at 4012 Washington boulevard.

Only the immediate family will be present, all arrangements being as simple as possible, as the Garneaus are in mourning. Miss Garneau is one of the belles in the fashionable set, and Mr. Bates is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Frederick Bates of 4325 Westminster place, and is a descendant of Pierre Laclede, founder of St. Louis.

Miss Virginia Harris and Harvey S. Owen were married, Wednesday morning, at 9:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Annie F. Harris, in Clayton. Only the members of the immediate family were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fathers Spetke of Clayton. The bride is a graduate of Visitation Convent and was one of the maids of honor at the Veiled Prophet's ball in her debut year, two seasons ago. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Owen of 4248 Flora boulevard, and is a graduate of the Rolla School of Mines, class of 1910. Mr. and Mrs. Owens departed on their honeymoon trip immediately after the wedding breakfast.

There will be a table d'hote dinner, Saturday, on the terrace at the St. Louis Country Club, which was opened formally with a garden party last Saturday. Every Thursday after May 14 there will be a buffet luncheon for wives and daughters of club members.

Mrs. John Pickering Thomas Jr. of Boston, Mass., who has been in St. Louis since before Christmas visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. William McCandless, has returned home with her infant daughter.

Mrs. Henry Flad of 4411 Westminster place, her daughter, Miss Fanny Flad, and her granddaughter, Miss Marion Frances Howard, have returned from California, where they have been since January.

EUGENE: I've changed my mind. We'll be married. That's because you look so swell in your new diamond stud from Loftis Bros. & Co., the National Credit Jewelers, 2d floor, 308 N. Sixth st.

For Sallow, Wrinkled, Freckled, Pimpled Skin

If you have any cutaneous blemish, don't use paint, powder or anything else to cover it up. Too often this only emphasizes the defect. Besides, it's much easier to remove the disfigurement with ordinary mercolized wax. Applied nightly, the wax will gradually remove freckles, pimples, blackheads, moth patches, sallowness, red or yellow blotches, or any surface eruptions. The affected cuticle is absorbed, a little each day, until the clear, soft, youthful and beautiful skin beneath is brought wholly to view. Ask the druggist for an ounce of mercolized wax and use this like you use cold cream. Remove in morning with soap and water. Many who have tried this simple and harmless treatment report astonishing results.

If bothered with wrinkles or crow's feet, a wash lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel will prove remarkably effectual.—ADV.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young—is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels, there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, Ohio. All druggists.

M. NEY SMITH, M. D.

Extract from Mr. Eichacker's Letter: St. Louis, Mo., March 23, 1907.

My Dear Doctor—I feel that it is no more than justice and a benefit to humanity that I give you this letter.

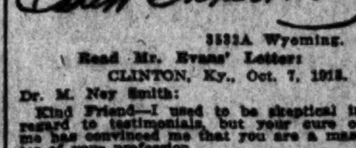

I suffered seven years with a complicated Fistula. There were three separate openings, all discharging at the same time, causing me intense suffering and great annoyance. I always had a dread of being treated because I had known of others who had submitted to treatment with the knife, and had been left in a deplorable condition, but when I read your advertisement, decided to call and talk with you.

I am pleased to say that you entirely cured me of this trouble, and I am certainly one of your most grateful patients. I cannot use language strong enough to urge those who may be suffering in this way to apply to you for treatment. While under your care you handled me gently and carefully, and was at all times solicitous as to my welfare, and am sure you left nothing undone to make me as comfortable and cause me as little suffering as possible.

PILES CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE
FISTULA—FISSURE PAY WHEN CURED

Before I took your treatment I investigated quite thoroughly by seeing a number of parties whom you had cured and everyone, without any exception, advised me to take your treatment. I am now willing to advise others to do the same thing. Yours very truly, 3532A Wyoming.

Read Mr. Evans' Letter: CLINTON, Ky., Oct. 7, 1913.

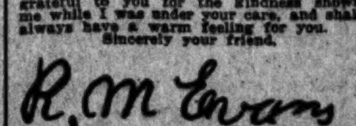

Dr. M. Ney Smith:

Kind Friend—I used to be skeptical in regard to testimonials, but your cure of me has convinced me that you are a master of your profession.

Your treatment cured me after I had been a constant sufferer for 10 years from Piles. I feel better than I have for 10 years, and can truly recommend you to do what you claim.

I am real glad that I met you and feel grateful to you for the kindness shown me while I was under your care, and shall always have a warm feeling for you.

SOMERS PARK, CLEVELAND, O., May 6.—The crowd today demonstrated that the Naps must play better ball before they will be good drawing cards at home, as only 2500 were present to greet the Browns on their first visit of the year.

Because of the adoption of Eastern time, the Browns had to hurry to get to the park in time to play at 3 p. m., as they did not reach Cleveland until 1:30 p. m.

On his arrival at the hotel Manager Rickey found waiting a new Brownie in Ots Jarosick, a semi-pro of Baltimore. He is a catcher and is built like Hack Spencer. Rickey chose Bill James to pitch with Rumler behind the bat. Blanding worked for Cleveland.

FIRST INNING.

BROWNS—Shotton walked. On the hit and run Austin singled to right, Shotton taking third. Pratt tripled to left, scoring Shotton and Austin. Williams walked. Walker hit into a triple play, Turner to Lajoie to Johnston to Carisch. It was a grounder to Turner, whose throw to Lajoie caught Williams, while Lajoie's throw to first beat Walker. Pratt tried to score on the double out and was nailed easily. TWO RUNS.

FOLK RENEWS INQUIRY INTO NEW HAVEN DEALS

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today resumed investigation of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad. Affairs of the Billard company and its relations, financial and otherwise, with the New Haven were the particular subjects of inquiry.

Chief Counsel Folk was prepared to direct his energies toward discovering the origin of the funds which financed the Billard company. He had obtained admissions that $2,000,000 was supplied for the organization of the Billard concern and wants to know whether it was furnished by the New Haven road or its officers. Samuel Hemingway, who was treasurer of the Billard company when it was organized, and John L. Billard, the organizer, were scheduled as witnesses.

The winner today became the British amateur champion, Neville S. Lyotton, the holder, having announced his decision not to defend the title this year.

WRAY'S COLUMN

Australians on Our Trail.

THAT the Davis international tennis trophy is in serious danger from challengers, during the summer campaign is evident from the early effort being made to gird up the Yankee loins for the fray.

A tryout tournament in which the stars of the country have been invited to compete is now being arranged, while innumerable events tending to put all the players on edge will be decided beforehand.

W. A. Larned Only Star Absent.

THE ranking 25 players of the country have been sent invitations to get in shape for the tryout event. The only important name in recent tennis history missing from the list is that of W. A. Larned, probably the most brilliant player who ever represented the United States and many times champion of the country.

The reason for the early activity is that the bug-a-boos of the tennis world, the Australian stars, Wilding, Brookes and Dunlop, are again in the field, with Doust and Jones, last year's representatives, in reserve. At their best it is doubtful if there are two singles players living who can take care of Wilding and Brookes, on their past performances, and American alarm is justly awakened.

Who Defenders Will Be.

UNLESS there is a sudden spurt made by some of the younger element among the tennis players, it is probable that Maurice McLoughlin and R. N. Williams 2d, in the singles, and Thomas C. Bundy to help "Mac" in the doubles will be the main string defenders. Johnston in the singles and the veteran Hackett in the doubles seem the players most likely to disturb the arrangement mentioned, if any change is made.

From the veterans like Clothier, Behr and Niles, little improvement can be expected, as they have apparently matured their play and reached top form.

Americans Great Finishers.

Accounts of the English matches last year when the Americans won the title, are none too favorable to the Americans, except as showing their gameness and stamina. Fred Alexander, former partner with Hackett in the doubles, in writing of the work of Norris Williams states that the Harvard star was brilliant and erratic by turns, lacking reliability of performance. He apparently had the American following badly frightened.

The mighty McLoughlin himself showed some dangerous weaknesses. In one of the elimination rounds he was all but beaten by Froitzheim, whose lack of endurance was the only thing that beat him. He had McLoughlin two sets to none and was leading in the third when he tired. McLoughlin wore him out.

Parke Trims the Doughty "Mac.

THE British team, composed of staid players of the coach-horse variety, veteran and dignified, but dependable, gave the Americans a ripe scare. Parke defeated McLoughlin, to the consternation of the Yankees, while Williams saved the day by trimming Dixon. McLoughlin and Hackett sneaked through the doubles, hard-pressed all the way, and then McLoughlin came back and beat Dixon.

Wilding World's Best Player.

THIS form shows just a scant advantage over the Britons, not at all a brilliant team. It is not at all the rock-ribbed defense that will be needed when Brookes, Wilding, Dunlop, Doust and Jones come a-knocking at the door.

Wilding has twice shown his superiority over McLoughlin. He trimmed Mac handily in the final of the British championship, when the latter was fresh and not worn out by Davis cup strain.

His all around play makes him the ranking star of the world, today. Norman Brookes is little behind him, although he has not been in the game for several seasons.

If he can come back, it looks like a lead-pipe of the softest variety for the Australians to win the challenge rounds from England, Germany, France, South America and Canada, with a strong probability that they will also win back the Davis trophy to the Antipodes, where it would be today, if the once-famous defending team had remained intact.

Water Has Its Ill Effects.

THE "drys" haven't a leg to stand on in the following instance, wherein water cost the St. Louis Federals the leading position in the race and the opening game with Baltimore. With the score 1—0 in favor of Baltimore, St. Louis at bat and one man out, "Keno" Kommers hit a rap to left center. On the wing the ball looked certain to reach the bleacher front, from which point it might roll indefinitely before being herded into the fielder's mitt.

Instead the hard-hit ball dropped 30 feet from the bleacher front and DID NOT ROLL AN INCH! The outfielder did not have to miss an instant in fielding and returning the ball and Kommers was held on second. Had he gone to third he would have scored on the next play—a hard grounder to Knabe, on which Drake was retired at first.

And the reason the ball fell dead and did not roll was: The watchman let the hose run all night in one spot and made a marsh of left center.

And they say there's no luck in baseball. What?

Wanted: A Little More "Pep."

WHAT life and vociferousness sometimes means to a baseball team may be a questionable matter; but to the spectator there is no doubt whatever. To the man in the stand the team with the fire, "pep" and noise is the pleasing one.

Example: The Baltimore club Tuesday was on the defense by far the greater part of the game. Yet its life and aggressive spirit never suggested defeat. Miner Brown's silent men blundered into the lead and appeared to have no right there. The quiet baseball player may theoretically be the more efficient, but he's a sight less interesting, Bo.

Apologies to Mgr. Brown.

YES, Willis, it was one in the error column of the writer, when he suggested that the Terriers committed a barry by not hustling up the play with two out, in the seventh inning of Tuesday's game, after the local club had made two runs and while rain threatened to stop the contest.

The play suggested in this column would have been all right had it come up before the fifth inning. At this period of a game the score reverts to the count in the inning previous.

Afterwards, however, the score stands as made, provided the team in front has had only an even chance in innings with its opponent.

Here is the rule:

Rule 25. If the umpire calls a game * * * at any time after five innings have been completed the score shall be that of the last equal innings played, except that if the side second at bat shall have scored in an unequal number of innings, or before the completion of an unfinished inning, at least one run more than the side first at bat, the score of the game shall be the total number of runs made by each club.

• • •

The Baltimore had had their chance to score more runs in the same number of innings, therefore, the St. Louis club's score would have stood, even had the game been cut short with only two out in the seventh inning.

Motordrome Opens May 27.

St. Louis will again have a team in the Motor Cycle League, when the Motordrome opens May 27. Charley Salen of Cleveland, owner of the Motordrome, arrived Tuesday to begin plans for the season. He says the St. Louis team will include Al Standen, Wille Gibson, Jimmy Martinson and Al Sayalad.

ONLY 1 HIT MADE IN POST-DISPATCH LEAGUE CONTEST

Pitcher Huber, Bryan Hill, Twirls Good Game Against Ashland School Team.

The Bryan Hill School team maintained its lead in the North End Division No. 1 by defeating the Ashland School, 22 to 1. The game was featured by the good pitching of Huber of the Bryan Hill team. He allowed the Ashland boys only one hit and struck out 18 batters. That ties the record of Walter Michler, the Sigel School's star twirler.

The Marquette team played an interesting game with the Crow School boys, the former winning by the score of 7 to 4. Byron Jones of the Marquette team held the Crow batters to six hits. The Marquette batters obtained 10 hits off McFarland.

The Sherman School team defeated the Lafayette School team by the score of 10 to 3. Fries of the winners was in good form, allowing four hits and striking out 17 batters.

Henry Team Beats Pope.

The Henry team won from the Pope team, 9 to 3. The Penrose team defeated the Longfellow team, 11—10. These teams played last Saturday, when the Longfellow team won. The game was protested by the Penrose School and the Longfellow boys agreed to replay the game, with the result that the verdict was reversed.

The schedule for Saturday is announced today. It will mark the final division games for some of the teams. As the division championships are drawing to a close, the team managers are urged to use judgment in the selection of capable umpires for the contests. The team captains and managers are again reminded of the penalty for using any but bona fide students of schools in the games. One school was dropped from the league for violating the eligibility rule.

Following is Saturday's schedule:

Harmony.

A MANAGER was talking for the public's benefit,
And in the interview he spilled the following, to wit:
"My team is not disgruntled," he announced between his sobs,
"They're like a happy family and Jerry to their jobs."

"They love me like a brother and I love the boys the same;
We work with one another for the interests of the game;
There's nothing to these stories of internal rows and cliques;
In fact, I never saw a more contented bunch of geeks.

"Our middle name is 'HARMONY,' in large and glaring caps;
The members of the team are fine, enthusiastic chaps."
So saying, he excused himself to eat a bite of lunch,
And wrote to seven magnates asking waivers on the bunch.

There seems to be a misapprehension on the part of the Terrapins as to the spelling of the gentleman's name who did the hurling against them yesterday. For their benefit we will state that his name is Willett, not Killett.

Eighteen Brownies Fail to Check Sox With "Reb" Russell Pitching

ONLY one game was played at Sportsman's Park Tuesday, but 18 Brownies, enough to participate in two matinees, felt the sting of defeat. It was handed out by the White Sox of Chicago, who fell on almost every member of B. Rickey's crew and crushed the former third placers by the score of 8 to 1.

This crushing caused a tumble of the Browns, who now repose in fifth place. A victory over the Sox would have boosted the Sportsman's Park aggregation to second place.

A flock of reasons could be assigned for the defeat. Foremost probably was the failure of Wilie Taylor, a righthander. Wilie formerly played with the White Sox and might have been too eager to show up his former mates. He allowed a run in the opening inning and packed the bases with one gone in the second.

This inheritance by Roy Mitchell was not relished by the Longhorn. Before he succeeded in retiring two more Sox, four hose had scampered over the pan.

With "Reb" Russell hurling, five runs proved more than enough to win. "Reb" got even for the 2—1 defeat slipped to him by Earl Hamilton in the opening contest of the series.

Manager Huggins and most of his Cardinals, who had an off day, saw the show. The Cardinals were not convinced that Rickey is commanding a first division club.

With the game hopelessly gone, Manager Rickey sent in almost an entirely new team. He benched Pratt, Leary, Williams and some battery men. Eddie Miller at second, Ivan Howard at first, Bob Messenger in right and other rookies were given chances.

Taylor and Rumler formed the original battery. Then Mitchell and Agnew went in. Ernie Manning pitched one inning. The batterymen on the job at the windup were Harry Hoch, a stockily built right hander, and Joe Jenkins.

The only pleasing part of the matinee from a St. Louis standpoint was Agnew's return to the lineup for a few minutes. Sam went in when there seemed a chance to head off the Sox rally. He received a reception that surely made him feel that he is welcome on a St. Louis team. Hoch's showing was pleasing. The Sox got only one run off him in four rounds.

Bert Shotton keeps hitting. The Speeder got two blows out of four trips, one being a triple down the right field corner of the lot. Shotton is leading the Browns' hitters to date, having pounded the ball for better than a .400 mark during the 12 games played on the home lot.

JAP FAILS IN EFFORTS TO THROW MAX LUTTBEG

Max Luttbeg, former lightweight champion wrestler of the world, proved too much for Matty Matsuda, the Japanese wrestler, in their match at the Standard Theater Tuesday evening. Matsuda had agreed to toss Luttbeg once in 25 minutes or forfeit $25. Matsuda not only failed to throw Luttbeg, but was forced on the defensive himself several times. After the match, Luttbeg asked for another chance at the Jap. He believes he can throw the Oriental. Matsuda will meet John Will of the South Broadway Athletic Club Wednesday evening.

Stagg to Send Track Stars to Big Event Here

Blanks for 20 Amateurs Filled Out by Members of Chicago U. Squad.

Members of the Big Nine colleges are beginning to realize the importance of the Missouri Valley Track and Field meet, an annual event here, as evidenced by the entry of Northwestern University of Evanston, Ill., and the proposed entry of Chicago University. Northwestern will send 20 men here to the meet at Francis Field, May 29 and 30. Stagg, the Chicago coach, has made 20 of his men sign amateur blanks for the Missouri Valley Meet, and also has asked if he could send two of his men here without competing in the preliminaries, on Saturday. The men he had in mind were weight throwers who are scheduled to play in a baseball game the day of the preliminaries.

Northwestern has three star men, Osborne who runs the quarter and half-mile events, Kraft the one and two miler, and Warrick who is entered in the dashes and broad jump. All of these men won places in the meet here last year, Osborne winning the half mile.

WALSH AGREES TO TAKE YEAR WITH ROCHESTER CLUB

Manager Rickey Arranges Deal Whereby St. Louis Boy Goes to Ganzel's Team.

Dee Walsh, the St. Louis boy, has been released to the Rochester (International League) team. A string will be held to the young infielder and if he prospers with John Ganzel's club will be yanked back in another effort to plug up the hole at shortstop on the Browns' infield.

Walsh is a capable fielder, is fast enough on the tow paths for the big show, but doesn't quite measure up to the major league standard as a hitter. He stands up well at the plate, which leads Manager Rickey to believe that eventually Dee will hit.

When asked if Walsh will depart immediately to join the Rochester club, President Hedges of the Browns said Walsh hadn't been released yet. He said he knew nothing of a deal whereby Walsh is to go to Ganzel's club.

Earlier in the season a deal had been arranged whereby Walsh was to go to the St. Paul (American Association) team. Dee blocked this deal and was used in the infield for a while. He has consented to take a season in the International League.

Cornelius Roche, called "Red" by his teammates, another St. Louis boy with the Browns, has been turned over to the Lowell (New England League) team by Manager Rickey. Roche is still a young man and a year under Jimmy Gray in Lowell should better prepare him for a berth in the big show.

J. MILLER WOULD NOT ACCEPT JOB AS CARDS' LEADER

Huggins' First Baseman Sore Because Managerial Rumor Involved His Name.

Sallee, Loyalist, Will Pitch Against Reds in Opening Battle Today

HARRY SALLEE, southpaw, will pitch the opening game against the Reds at Robison Field Wednesday afternoon, in spite of his conference with Eddie Steininger Tuesday. The Cards will begin a five-game series Wednesday with Fred Beck on third base in lieu of Cozy Dolan, retired.

It will be the first appearance of the Rhineland entry with its new manager, C. Herzog, a reformed Giant. Herzog has remodeled his machine with so many new players in the lineup that they will be hard to recognize.

Jack Miller, the former Pirate, who is now serving as the Cardinals' first baseman, is hot up over a report which mentioned him as a possible successor to Miller Huggins, should the wee manager resign or be asked to step aside to make room for someone else.

Miller contends that the mentioning of his name in this connection is not only an injustice to Huggins, but also to Miller himself. He says he came to St. Louis from Pittsburg as a player and isn't seeking a job as manager of a ball club.

"When the report was sprung that Huggins was to be let out and that I might be made manager of the Cardinals," Miller says, "I went to Huggins and told him that I wasn't after the job, didn't want it and wouldn't take it. I added that if Huggins didn't believe me, I would quit the team immediately."

Miller is one of the hardest workers on the Cardinal club. Although dropped from a probable pennant winner to a possible tail-ender, he's out to give the Cardinal club his best.

POST CARDS ADVERTISE CARDINALS-REDS SERIES

Federal League magnates shouted "First blood for us," Wednesday morning, when they learned that the St. Louis National League Club had sent out several thousand post cards advertising the opening of the Cincinnati-St. Louis series here today.

"Looks as though they were afraid no one would know they were back," was the way one outlaw supporter put it.

"It's in line with the publicity campaign we have undertaken for the last year or so," was the comment of Herrmann Seekamp of the business department of the local club. "This is not the first time we have sent out advertising literature, nor are the Cardinals the first to employ other than the regulation amusement ads."

The cards contained a half-tone of the entire Cardinals' squad on one side, and an announcement of the Cincinnati-St. Louis series May 6, 7, 8 and 9 on the other.

Home-Run Balls Banished From "Fed" League Parks

Unable to Enlarge Its Ground, the New Organization Designs a Baseball That Is Expected to Remain Inside the Fences.

By W. J. O'Connor.

A NEW ball, built to fit inside Federal League Park, was put into play in the game between the Terrapins and Terriers, Tuesday. The old "lively" ball was geared too high for the ball yard and forced the management to do one of two things, to wit: Enlarge the park or deaden the pill.

President Steininger elected to deaden the spheroid, thereby saving the expense of buying a brace of houses on Clark avenue. A new consignment of balls WHOSE RESILIENCE WAS REDUCED 15 PER CENT was shipped into town by the manufacturers Tuesday. These balls are said to fit snugly into the neat plant at Grand and Laclede avenues, although there is a strong hunch extant that somebody worked one of the old lively globules into the pastime in the fifth frame when Boucher boosted it over the right field wall for a home run. However, that's only idle conjecture.

The fact is, though, that a new ball will be in use in the Federal League hereafter, a ball with less rubber in the core and fewer home runs on the wing.

Despite the new horsehide, the Terriers lost their race to the Terrapins, Tuesday, 8—6, chiefly because Edgar Willett gave Mickey Doolan a good ball to hit at after Willett had Mickey in the hole, two strikes and one ball.

A .218 Pinch Hitter.

Doolan is one of those joke hitters who can't win more than one game a day, try as he may. Last year Mickey batted .218 in the National League. He made 113 hits and it is said that he almost won a game with each of those hits. Mickey conserves his energy and puts everything he's got into one punch which usually lifts the hostile pitcher into the land of nod.

On Monday he uncorked a triple that put Bob Groom, Belleville's foremost citizen, on the everlasting bum. The bases were loaded to the gills, with one out, when Mickey faced Willett, Tuesday. Willett put the ball over and Doolan fouled off four in a row. He then sneered at a wide one, and with the call 2—1, Willett made the fatal mistake of giving him a good one to hit at. Result: A two-bagger and three runs.

All Doolan did Tuesday was to drive home five runs, and score one himself. He contributed two fielding feats that smothered two Terrier rallies, but outside of that he was excess baggage.

Doolan a Team in Himself.

Before the game the writer had a talk with F. Otto Knabe, the "noiseless" manager of the enemy. The remark was made that Knabe had scuttled the good ship "Phillie."

"Well, I got the best ballplayer they had, and after I landed him I didn't want anybody else." (Everybody has one guess as to the identity of the man Knabe refers to.)

"I'm going to stand pat on my team, because I think we can win the pennant as we are," continued Knabe. "Of course, I will pick up a few youngsters, some that I already have a line on. I've got a couple of college boys in tow and I'll line them up when the collegiate season is over. However, my team as it is now constituted, with Zinn soon in harness, is good enough. I'll play the Phillies a seven-game series and win five any time they want to accept the challenge."

Knabe has two ingredients essential in the concoction of a pennant-winning club: Pepper and Doolan. The Terrapins are the noisiest entry in the outlaw league and their aggressiveness is largely responsible for their present position at the top of the heap. They surely have "outtalked" the Terriers in the two games played here, and the fighting spirit of the enemy has won many friends among the home fans. A fighting club losing often makes a stronger appeal than a lady-like team winning a pennant.

M. Brown Will Try to Pitch Terriers Into First Place Wednesday

MORDECAI BROWN, the old wiz who blanked the Brooklyn batters for five frames in his first out of the season Saturday, when he finished up for Kupper, will scale the pitching peak against the Terrapins Wednesday in hope of pitching his boys back into first place. A victory over Knabe's naughty boys will give the Terriers a tie for the league lead. Brown probably will draw George Suggs, his former Cincinnati teammate in the final game.

Either Mike Simon or Grover Hartley will do the catching.

5,000 Baltimore Fans Block Traffic to Get Returns on Terrapins

Baltimore is wild about its Terrapins, according to newspaper men visiting this city with Otto Knabe's club. A wire working out of Federal League Park direct to an electric scoreboard in the Maryland metropolis brought back returns Tuesday that 5000 fans were congregated in front of the board, blocking traffic to watch the score.

"There's a detail of police on hand every day in front of our scoreboard," said one of the Baltimore newspaper men. "There'll be 5000 fans watching the Terrapins' score, while 500 will go out to see the International League game."

If the Terrapins return home in first place the Baltimore fans will knock down the gates getting in, 'tis said, so it is.

POLO TEAM WEAK, BRITONS MAY NOT PLAY FOR TITLE

Too Much Social Life in Madrid Prevents Development of English Team.

LONDON, May 6.—There is increased probability that no British team will play at Meadowbrook this year in an effort to capture the international polo cup. The poor showing of Lord Wimborne's challenge team with a scratch lot at Roehampton greatly agitated polo circles here and the advice of the Times polo expert to postpone the challenge meets until next year is considered very wise.

No official decision has yet been taken. When the Post-Dispatch correspondent called at Lord Wimborne's house it was said he would not make any statement at present and had declined numerous requests made him by cable and otherwise.

In the polo match played at Ranelagh this afternoon Baron Wimborne's players were defeated by a team consisting of Walter S. Buckmaster, Mr. Grenfell, Capt. Leslie St. C. Cheape and Lord Wodehouse. The score was 9 goals to 6.

After next Saturday's game the Burlingham Polo Committee will consider the situation, and unless the challengers show extraordinary improvement it is regarded as practically certain that the challenge will be withdrawn.

Rumors are afloat that the Madrid training was greatly impaired by social distractions, and opinions are expressed by expert onlookers that the team does not stand a hundred to one chance in America.

Sallee Seeks Interview With Steininger, Merely to 'Renew Acquaintance'

If Brigadier-General Funston should jump into his Ford and proceed today to Mexico City for a quiet little conference with Gen. Huerta, should Billy Bryan bibble? Of course not!

Not a bit more than Miller Huggins should manifest concern over the fact that Maj. Domo Sallee, Sheriff of Higginsport, O., and commander of the field artillery of the North Vandeventer avenue division, deliberately sought a parley with President E. A. Steininger of the local outlaws Tuesday.

Gen. Sal called at Federal League Park to leave his card. Other players have done that much without breaking into the news columns, but other players didn't insist upon seeing President Steininger, like Sal did. Mr. Steininger was called out of the directors' private box, where he was in conversation with C. C. Madison, the bandit leader of the West, and went to a remote spot in the grand stand to entertain the distinguished caller.

They talked and talked and talked, and never once did they smile. Afterwards neither would make a pertinent statement.

"Just a friendly call," explained Sallee.

"Sal's an old pal of mine," said Steininger. This is important and true, but for the first time in five years fans were permitted to see the modern Damon and Pythias acting out in the open.

Willett and His Support Weaken at Same Time and Terrapins Win

'TWAS a tough game Miner Brown's team lost, Tuesday. By winning it the locals could have rumbled back into first place, but a combination of bad plays and tough breaks gave the show to the enemy. Mr. Mathes pulled a bad one in the eighth when, on his way from first to third, he stopped at second and looked back. There's a Biblical story about the danger of ever looking back, but Mathes should bibble. He looked back and was retired at third in the midst of a furious rally. Subsequent hits would have scored him.

Fred Kommers gave the locals a flying start by injecting a long single into the proceedings in the first frame, scoring Bridwell and Boucher. Boucher's home run netted another in the fifth, while Willett's single, Kommers' walk with Duncan's error netted two in the seventh.

Mike Simon, disguised as a pinch hitter, delivered a double in lieu of Willett in the eighth that gave the locals their last run. It came at the expense of Frank Smith, who succeeded Kaiser Wilhelm.

Doolan's single scored Swacina with the Terrapins' first run in the fourth, while singles by Duncan and Simmons and Mathes' error gave two more in the sixth. The blow-off came in the eighth. Duncan walked. Simmons was hit. Swacina singled, scoring Duncan. Walsh's high fly back of second was unmolested by Mathes and Miller, filling the bases, and then Doolan broke up the game with a double, scoring three. He counted on Jacklitsch's single. Knabe registered the first and third outs.

M. Brown's pitching staff is crippled, so he suffered Willett to stay. Knabe didn't indulge Wilhelm long, yanking the Kaiser once there was a chance to win. Zinn swung for Wilhelm in the eighth inning rally and registered an out.

Herbert, a youngster, who succeeded Willett after the game was lost, retired the enemy in order in the ninth, thanks to a double play. "If Herbert only went to work in the eighth" was the wail of the second-guess gang in the grand stand.

Johnson-Moran Fight Clinched; Date Is June 27

PARIS, May 6.—The French Boxing Federation, the principal authority on ring contests in France, which for a time refused to recognize "Jack" Johnson as the heavyweight champion of the world, today accepted his claim to the title.

The management of the fight between Johnson and Frank Moran of Pittsburg, which will take place on June 27, has been assumed by Theodore Vienne, a prominent member of the boxing federation. He signed a contract last night to stage the match, succeeding Emile Maitrot, who retired.

The plans for the Velodrome d'Hiver where the bout will be held, provide for 26,000 seats and standing room for 4000.

PAGEANT MUSIC TO BE HEARD AT FREE CONCERT MAY 24

Five Hundred Singers and 100 Instruments Will Take Part in Final Rehearsal.

SEATS FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Anheuser-Busch Brewery Gives $1000 to Pageant Fund, Four Individuals $600.

The biggest free open air concert ever heard in St. Louis will be given from the Pageant stage in Forest Park Sunday afternoon, May 24, when the music of the Pageant and Masque of St. Louis will be produced by the orchestra and the choruses.

This concert will be the final musical rehearsal for the Pageant and Masque, and the music will be produced, as nearly as possible, in the way that it is to be given on the afternoons and evenings of the performances, beginning Thursday, May 28, and continuing through Sunday, the 31st. About 500 singers and 100 instrumental musicians will take part in the rehearsal.

The seats on the side of Art Hill will all be in place by that time, and all will be free to the public at this and other rehearsals. No attempt will be made to keep anyone away from any rehearsal.

The motion picture rehearsal, because of light, probably will be held in the morning, Monday, May 25. The movements, in that rehearsal, will be modified to meet the requirements of the film makers.

Motion picture men have told the Pageant producers that something must be done to produce a current in the lagoon. When Auguste Chouteau and his men pole their boat up to the landing of the St. Louis Levee, the picture men say, the force of a strong current, pressing against the prow, should be shown, otherwise the illusion will be painfully incomplete.

May Play Hose on Lagoon.

The only suggestion for supplying a current has been made by Miss Charlotte Rumbold, resourceful factotum of the Pageant. "Why not play a big fire hose on the water, just at the edge of the picture?" she asked, and this plan probably will be tried for the motion picture purpose, though not for the Pageant performances.

In addition to the chorus of 500 voices, a chorus of 100 boys, most of them singers in vested choirs of St. Louis churches, will furnish special music. In the Masque their voices will appear to come from the sky, and will represent the stars singing together. Arthur Davis, organist of Christ Church Cathedral, is recruiting this chorus. Frederick Fischer is in charge of the main body of singers.

A check for $1000, received by the Pageant management Wednesday from the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, was the fifth four-figure contribution received from a single corporation. The United Railways Co. gave $2500, and the Famous-Barr company, Stix, Baer & Fuller and Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney gave $1000 each. B. F. Bush's check for $5000 represented all the railroads in the Terminal Railroad Association. Aside from this $5000, the only contribution which has been received from outside transportation interests was $100 from the St. Louis Electric Bridge Co. (McKinley line).

The names of T. S. and P. C. Maffitt, Harry Scullin and M. Shoenberg were added to the roll of honor of individual donors of $100 or more. The Maffitts gave $125 each, and Scullin $250. Shoenberg's $100 contribution was distinct from that of the Famous-Barr company, of which he is an official.

Registration of native-born St. Louisans, and of those, not natives of St. Louis, who live here and who wish to aid the Pageant by 25-cent contributions, is going on briskly at the registration headquarters, 618 Olive street, and at newspaper offices and several drug stores.

David R. Francis, who registered Tuesday on behalf of his six sons and four grandchildren, had to return later in the day and register for a fifth grandchild, of whose arrival he just had learned. She is Ann Waters Francis, daughter of Thomas and Leila Waters Francis, who live at the Francis home, 4421 Maryland avenue.

Pioneer Confectioner Registers.

August Gisler, retired confectioner, who made the first angel cake ever made in St. Louis, and whose father was the first St. Louis confectioner, registered Wednesday in the Pageant book His father, Peter Gisler, he narrated, came to the village in 1828. The son became asscociated with him in business as soon as he was old enough. They manufactured the first chocolate cream cakes and introduced a machine for making lemon drops that caused wonderment. They also put into operation the first soda fountain. The drink they dispensed from it was called New Orleans mead and was made from a recipe brought from France.

Samuel Breckenridge Long registered for himself and his wife. His grandfather, Judge Samuel Breckenridge, was a Circuit Judge during the Civil War, was a member of the State convention in 1861 and was an ardent Unionist and a leader of the anti-secession movement. Mrs. Long's grandfather, Francis Preston Blair, was a leader of the Unionists and prevented Missouri from joining the Confederacy. He was a Major-General of United States Volunteers and afterward was a United States Senator. Mrs. Long's mother, Mrs. Christine Blair Graham, is Missouri regent for the Mount Vernon Association.

ARRIE AND WIDOW F CAPT. SCOTT ARE PORTED ENGAGED

NDON, May 6.—The name of Lady , the widow of Capt. Robert F , the antarctic explorer, has been d to the list of women who at va- times have been reported to have engaged to marry Sir James Bar- he playwright. It is rumored they be wedded soon.

pt. Robert F. Scott perished in the outh while returning from the h Pole, in March, 1912. For years, James M. Barrie has been inter- d in polar exploration. In February it was reported that he had con- ted $50,000 to a fund to equip Sir est Shackleton's antarctic expediarrie was an intimate friend of Capt. t and stood godfather to his son, er.

ne of the last letters written by t. Scott, as he lay slowly freezing the road back from the South Pole, to Barrie. It was found on Scott's y eight months later. It read:

My Dear Barrie: We are pegging at in a very comfortless spot. Hop- s this letter may be found and nt to you, I write a word of fare- ell. * * * More practically I want ou to help my widow and my boy, our godson. We are showing that nglishmen can still die with a good pirit, fighting it out to the end. It ill be known that we have accom- lished our object in reaching the ole, and that we have done every- ing possible, even to sacrificing urselves, in order to save sick com- anions. I think this makes an ex- mple for Englishmen of the future nd that the country ought to help hose who are left behind to mourn s.

Good-by. I am not at all afraid of e end, but sad to miss many an mble pleasure which I had planned r the future on our long marches. I ay not have proved a great explor- , but we have done the greatest arch ever made and come very near great success. Good-by, my dear iend.

We are in a desperate state, feet ozen, etc. No fuel and a long ay from food, but it would do your art good to be in our tent, to hear ir songs and the cheery conversa- on as to what we will do when we et to Hut Point.

Later.—We are very near the end, ut have not and will not lose our ood cheer. We have had four days storm and no food or fuel. We d intend to finish ourselves when ings proved like this, but we have ecided to die naturally in the track. As a dying man, my dear friend, e good to my wife and child. Give he boy a chance in life, if the State on't do it. He ought to have good tuff in him. * * * I never met a an in my life whom I admired and oved more than you, but I never ould show you how much your riendship meant to me, for you had much to give and I had nothing.

Barrie's first wife was Miss Mary An- ll, the actress. They were divorced April, 1910.

How to Darken Gray Hair

by a Specialist.

A very satisfactory preparation which darkens gray hair and acts as a corrective agent for dandruff and other diseases of the scalp can be made at small expense and in your own home by dissolving a small box of Barbo Compound in 7 ounces of water and then by adding an ounce of bay rum and a quarter ounce of glycerine. Any drug store can furnish these ingredients. This is to be applied once a week until the hair is sufficiently darkened, then every two weeks to keep the hair soft and glossy and the scalp in a healthy condition. It may be used with equal success in darkening the beard. This is a preparation that gives splendid results, both as a hair darkener and a remedy for all scalp disorders, and is well worthy of a trial. You will find it far superior to the ordinary store preparations and much less expensive. —ADV.

ROOSEVELT TELLS OF MURDER AND FOOD SHORTAGE ON TRIP

Member of Brazilian Exploration Party Went Mad, Killed Companion and Escaped.

KERMIT ALMOST DROWNED

Colonel Himself Ill of Fever and Suffered From Abcess Caused by Injury.

By Associated Press.

PARA, BRAZIL, May 6.—How Kermit Roosevelt almost lost his life in the rapids of a Brazilian river, one member of the party was drowned, another went insane, murdered a fellow member and fled into the wilderness, and how he himself was stricken by fever and the party, for a time was on half rations, was related yesterday by Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who arrived in Para on the steamer Dunstan from his exploration of the Duvida River. With him were Kermit Roosevelt and the other members of his expedition. The party of Americans expects to sail Thursday for the United States. Of his exploring trip through the Brazilian wilds, Col. Roosevelt said:

Collected 2100 Specimens.

"During our trip, George K. Cherry and Leo C. Miller, the naturalists, collected more than 2100 birds and mammals and a few reptiles, batrachians and fish, chiefly from regions not hitherto traversed by any collector and many representing species hitherto unknown to science.

"The most important part of our trip was geographical. In the exploration of an unknown river we have put on the map a river nearly 1000 miles long, the existence of which is not hinted at on published maps.

"We were 60 days in canoes. In latitude 7:00 south, we passed the last rapids and reached the steamer, when we were but 36 hours from Manoas.

"The Duvida River, in point of volume, is like the Rhone, the Elbe and the Hudson, but is too much broken by rapids to be navigable, except in the lower parts.

"We were six weeks at steady labor slogging our way, on an average making not more than a couple of miles a day. The last part of this time we were living on half rations.

One Member Murders Another.

"Two sets of rapids were at the bottom of canyons where the river clove its way through mountain chains. Of the seven canoes with which we started, five were lost in the rapids. One of our men was drowned and two others, including Kermit, narrowly escaped death by drowning.

"Under the strain, one man went insane. He finally killed one of his comrades and fled into the wilderness.

"We saw no Indians, but twice heard them. While Col. Rondon, the chief of the Brazilian mission, was out alone hunting, his dog was killed by arrows. The dog's death probably saved Col. Rondon's life.

"I had a severe bout of fever and while working around a canoe in the rapids bruised my leg, which developed into a bad abscess, but I now am virtually all right."

Party to Sail for U. S. Tomorrow.

Col. Roosevelt was greeted on board the steamer Dunstan by the representative of the Governor of the State of Para, by the municipal authorities and several prominent persons.

On Thursday, the party will sail for New York by way of Barbados.

Kermit Roosevelt to Be Married in Madrid on June 11.

MADRID, May 6.—The wedding of Kermit Roosevelt and Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of J. F. Willard, American Ambassador to Spain, will take place at noon, June 11, at the British Embassy chapel here.

The ceremony is to be performed by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Watson, rector of the American church of the Holy Trinity, Paris, assisted by the Rev. Herbert Brown of the British chapel of Madrid.

The maid of honor will be the bride's sister, Elizabeth, and the bridemaids, Princess Thurn and Taxis, Katherine Page, daughter of Walter Hines Page, the American Ambassador in London; Gilone Le Veneur de Tilleres of Paris, and Virginia Christian of Virginia.

"TIME AND TIDE wait for no man." Neither does a pretty girl. Get the diamond at Loftis Bros. & Co., the National Credit Jewelers, 2d floor, 308 N. Sixth st. Bargains in Diamond engagement rings.

MIDWIFE IS ARRESTED

Mrs. Elizabeth Schmidt of 1303A Geyer avenue, a midwife, was arrested Tuesday afternoon in connection with the death of Mrs. Clara Sehr of 4130 Beethoven avenue, wife of Patrolman John J. Sehr of the Laclede Avenue Police District.

Mrs. Sehr was taken to the Baptist Hospital, Garrison and Franklin avenues, April 25, on the orders of Dr. J. C. Whitley of 4008 Hartford street, who had been called to her home. She died at the hospital Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Schmidt is alleged to have administered treatment to her before Dr. Whitely was called.

Former St. Louis Pastor to Preach.

The Rev. Felix R. Hill, who for four years was pastor of the Cook Avenue Methodist Church, and who also has been pastor of the First Methodist Church, arrived in St. Louis Wednesday. He will preach Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, in Scruggs Memorial Church, Spring and Cook avenues, and each evening for 10 days, except Saturdays.

Must Watch Carefully the Children's Diet

Start Them Off Right With a Good Laxative and Then Watch Their Food.

RALPH M. PATTEN

Mothers are often unconsciously very careless about the diet of their children, forcing all to eat the same foods. The fact is that all foods do not agree alike with different persons. Hence, avoid what seems to constipate the child or to give it indigestion, and urge it to take more of what is quickly digested.

If the child shows a tendency to constipation it should immediately be given a mild laxative to help the bowels. By this is not meant a physic or purgative, for these should never be given to children, nor anything like salts, pills, etc. What the child requires is simply a small dose of the gentlest of medicines, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which, in the opinion of thousands of watchful mothers, is the ideal remedy for any child showing a tendency to constipation. So many things can happen to a constipated child that care is necessary. Colds, piles, headaches, sleeplessness, and many other annoyances that children should not have can usually be traced to constipation.

Many of America's foremost families are never without Syrup Pepsin, because one can never tell when some member of the family may need it, and all can use it. Thousands indorse it, among them Mrs. M. E. Patten, Valley Junction, Io., who is never without it in the house. Mrs. Patten says that Syrup Pepsin has done wonders for her boy Ralph, who was constipated from birth, but is now doing fine. Naturally she is enthusiastic about it and wants other mothers to use it. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter size being bought by those who already know its value, and it contains proportionately more.

Everyone likes Syrup Pepsin as it is very pleasant to the taste. It is also mild and non-griping and free from injurious ingredients.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

91 Year Old Pioneer Thanks Duffy's

MR. CONRAD HYMAN

"Grand Old Age and How To Attain It" has been told hundreds of times by willing testimonials to the fact that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey actually delays the effects of old age and brings back the vivacity and versatility of youth to its grateful users. Here's another achievement to its wonderful record:

"In 1835 I landed in New York after a voyage of about eight weeks from Germany, then to Buffalo via the Erie Canal, staying in Buffalo a short time. We started through the woods for our future home, known as the 'Hyman Homestead' to this day. Our family consisted of nine children, and not having much money to start with, we had the experience of the early pioneers. Later, as I grew up, I became interested in the milling business, farming, cattle dealer—worked hard for a good many years, and the famous John Miller, at that time one of the leading doctors in this section, said my time was short, so for the last 25 years or more I have been using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and I am thankful to say that I am well and healthy at 91 years and hope to make a good record yet."—Conrad Hyman, Strykersville, N. Y.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

gives to the aged the vigor of youth and the power to sustain strength and energy. When taken just before mealtime it stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to healthy action, thereby improving the digestion and assimilation of food thus giving to the body its full proportion of nourishment. Thousands of people in all walks of life have enthusiastically testified to the wonderful and sustaining powers of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It is a remedy you should not fail to try. "Get Duffy's and keep well." At most druggists, grocers and dealers, $1.00 a large bottle. Valuable medical booklet and doctor's advice sent free if you write, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

"Busy"

BEFORE an operator reports a number as "busy" she goes through the same operations necessary to complete the call.

It would be easier for her to make the connection than to report "busy" and be called again.

Our operators are patient and courteous. They desire to serve you well.

Watch for our next suggestion.

THE POST-DISPATCH PLATFORM.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent, never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Abuse of Municipal Appropriations.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Much has been recently stated regard'ng the necessary 8 cents increase on $100, thereby ra'sing the $1,000,000 which will be necessary for our coming annual expenses. If the much-needed economy were enforced in the management of our municipal institutions, especially relating to the admittance of patients in our city hospital, an increase of tax rate would not be needed. After careful investigation of official records we find it costs the taxpayers of St. Louis about 98 cents per day for the maintenance of every patient in our city hospital, that the average stay is 15.4 days, making a total cost per patient admitted $15.92. Taking a yearly average of 11.500 patients admitted to hospital, the cost of their maintenance is $173,558. Careful investigators have proven beyond doubt that 65 per cent of all patients admitted were financially able to pay for such service, and would have been better satisfied if admittance had been refused them, thereby forcing them to go to pay hospitals.

This one source of justified economy, among many similar ones, will save our taxpayers $112,812 annually. I am quite sure the sum total of other sources of economy added to this will indeed exceed the $1,000,000 needed soon. "No patient should be allowed admittance who can afford to pay for such services, and 65 per cent can and will do so." The city hospital was built for the destitute patients only, and not for a "winter resort" for those who had rather not work, but would do so if forced to. B. Y. T.

Lafayette Park Loungers.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

As the writer understands, the city provides park guards for the purpose of keeping our parks clean and to protect them from becoming the regular lounging place for young couples, especially toward midnight. Lafayette Park has been used for these purposes since the very beginning of spring weather, and people in the neighborhood consider the conduct of couples coming from the park at this late hour very objectionable, and the appearance altogether out of line for a respectable neighborhood. As the city is paying salaries to obtain results, and as we have a very energetic Park Commissioner, who has done much to beautify our public places, I am sure he would not countenance any behavior of this sort.

As a reader of your paper, and a resident of this neighborhood, I consider it only right that it should be brought to the notice of the public, also the Park Commissioner, so he may stop these outrages which are committed every night in the week, as no one connected with the Park Department seems enough interested to try to stop them.

Children, Too Precocious.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I would like to see the fashion revived of introducing a lot of youngsters who would not talk "wise" about girls and women before they have discarded baby clothes (what new thought in eugenics could be taught them?), who would not indulge in stable talk nor marry almost as early as the Arabian maiden at the age of 9 years.

Receipts for Pageant Contributions.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Much is being said by the press concerning the slowness or failure on the part of citizens to contribute to the expense necessary for the great Pageant in this city this month, but many people are wondering why the numerous citizens, who have already contributed, received not a scratch of a pen or no other evidence that their money has been received. There are many people wondering why it has not occurred to the committee handling this matter to give some little receipt so that the contributors might have it as a souvenir and thus encourage, by showing it, others to do likewise. Many people contributed with the impression that they would get some sort of encouragement in the shape of a card or receipt that they belonged to the "Honor Class" in helping to support this worthy cause.

CONTRIBUTOR.

Guards for Forest Park.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

As the Pageant will be held in Forest Park let us hope Mr. Davis will be able to give ample police protection to those who go there. Last summer the southwest portion of the park was not a safe place for a woman if alone. There is no blame laid to Mr. Davis as he does not have the money to hire a sufficient number of guards.

SOUTH SIDE.

Farewell Tour Longer Than Usual.

From the Minneapolis Journal.

Mme. Bernhardt's farewell tour this year will take in Australia and Russia as well as the United States.

MR. CAMPBELL'S WRONG VIEW.

Returning from a trip through the Southwest, Mr. James Campbell is optimistic over the business prospect. Anticipating a bumper crop of wheat, he predicts a high tide of prosperity within two months.

Somewhat blurring this bright horizon, Mr. Campbell sees two clouds. One is the failure of the Interstate Commerce Commission to grant an increase in railroad rates and the other is pending legislation in Congress affecting business.

Quoting Mr. Campbell's own words on the second point:

> Another cloud which hangs heavy over the head of American business is the fear of experimental legislation regulating business by an administration which would enact it for its effect as political capital. If Congress would adjourn, or if assurance were given that no further drastic laws liable to harm business would be passed this session the outlook would be additionally brightened.

The uncertainty at least concerning the action of the Interstate Commerce Commission on railroad rates is likely to pass within a short time. Probably the rates will be increased to some extent, if not to the full extent of the railroad petition.

The trust legislation cloud, however, will not pass away. The anti-trust bills now pending in Congress will be enacted into law practically in their present forms.

There are different views of this legislation. Trust magnates, promoters and beneficiaries of across-the-table deals and high financiers of every stripe look upon the anti-trust program as a cloud. Others regard it as a bright spot.

It is customary for men who make millions by monopolistic practices, railroad exploitation and financial juggling to speak of legislation designed to check such illegitimate methods and practices as "experimental" and "political." They denounce it as interference with business. But the masses of the people who suffer from business abuses have a different view.

Legitimate business will be helped, not hurt, by the enactment of President Wilson's supplementary anti-trust bills. The only business that will be hurt is the kind that has skinned the railroads and put them in their present agony, stripped industry by promotion fees and excessive capitalization, thrown business into a bondage, plundered the people and caused all the depression there is.

This kind of business must be put out of business—the sooner the better.

A WOMAN SNIPER.

A Mexican woman is suspected of having sniped eight American bluejackets at Vera Cruz.

And what becomes of all that argument about the suffragettes' unfitness for war?

PAGEANT PROPRIETIES.

While the Pageant is on, let us put on our Sunday clothes and company manners and try by all means to make an impression.

As it were, let us put silk hats on the policemen and dress up our beggars in velvet. Let us shut off the smoke, polish the streets, drape bunting over "For Rent" signs, run all the street cars possible, suppress oratory at the City Club, reports of the Civic League and quotations on Bank of Commerce stock, and sh-h-h! don't speak of the unfinished free—even in whispers.

Taboo serious topics while the company is here, don't criticise Mayor Kiel, and everybody swear off for three or four days asking if anything is the matter with St. Louis, and if so, what. (After the respite we can take up our municipal family quarrels and reform problems with renewed verve and punch.)

Nothing is going to be reformed, voted on, put through, advanced, retarded or killed while the frolic is on. The only thing possible to be achieved, besides our own pleasure, is an impression on visitors. A good impression on visitors is the prime purpose of the whole affair, and good nature, politeness and a holiday atmosphere are essential to produce it. Last, but not least, let us pray for good weather, which is second only in importance to good humor.

SLAUGHTER OF BASS AT HOLLISTER.

The power installation on White River at Hollister was so constructed as not only to dam the waters coming down, but to dam the black bass going up to the spawning grounds. The graphic description sent from Hollister of the congestion of frantic fish below the works and their easy slaughter by thousands inclines Missouri sportsmen to the mental and perhaps even audible employment of another kind of damn. The State game officials should be insistent on the substitution of a different type of fish ladder.

Not the least distressing touch in the moving description, though one whose credibility is not essential to the issue of free passage for the fish, is the detail setting forth that the swift rush of waters in the flume deprives many monster bass of all their scales.

WHAT HURTS HUERTA.

Huerta reiterates that he won't resign. The way he repeats himself is just one more evidence of what ails Huerta. Really he is drinking too much. Villa was right.

Huerta would be much less bloodthirsty if it were not for his other thirst. We could stop this war, or whatever it is, if we could get him into a sanitarium.

THE WHIP HAND.

Why do the 20 Colorado mine operators, in the statement published in Tuesday's Post-Dispatch, reassert their determination never to "recognize nor have any dealings with the organization purporting to be a labor union and calling itself the United Mine Workers of America?"

Why the slur, the contemptuous questioning of the bona fides of the labor organization which produced such a man as Secretary of Labor Wilson, who helped organize it and was its secretary from 1900 to 1908?

The answer is, because these mine operators believe they still hold the whip hand. They believe they can successfully defy the public demand that the questions which have brought about so much bloodshed and induced the interference of the Federal Government shall be submitted to a board of impartial arbitrators.

It is imperative that both sides to this sanguinary contest shall be made to see that the public interest is paramount, and that the power to defy public opinion has departed from them once for all.

Government, represented by an impartial commission composed of men of national prominence, must take the whip hand in Colorado and enforce a just peace. That is the inevitable next step.

THE HOUSE'S HAPPY THOUGHT.

It was a happy thought of the House of Delegates to include dust and garbage collection in the appropriation bill provided for by the increase of the tax rate. The call of the garbage can and the dustbin are insistent and the city should dispose of the rubbish as a sanitary measure.

The elimination of the Payne tract purchase would have been better than that of the Coliseum, but there is a chance for the blocking of the former. The additional amount can be utilized to good purpose.

SAFETY FIRST ON THE U. R.

United Railways accidents in St. Louis killed 61 persons last year and injured 3669 others, making a total of 3720 who were the victims of casualties. Thus, accepting the Census Bureau's last estimate of the city population, one out of every 200 persons in St. Louis was visited with the results of careless United Railways operation.

The company paid in damages to the injured and the estates of those killed, including legal expenses, the sum of $657.955. This is 5 per cent of the gross revenue of the company.

A surface company having the United Railways' volume of business cannot be operated without accidents, but these figures are excessive. Ten persons are injured every day. One person is killed every six days. No matter how many years you have been carried in safety, you may be one of those killed.

The company should immediately inaugurate a safety-first campaign and place it in charge of an expert. The experience of all large transportation and industrial enterprises shows that these campaigns can greatly reduce the toll in life and limb.

Admitting that a large percentage of those injured suffered only a trifling disability, the tractions lines are far too great a menace to the welfare of the public. An unbelievable proportion of the money the company now pays out for personal damages can be saved for the improvement of its service.

The most of these accidents fall within the class of easily preventible accidents. Educate the people to take no chances with high-powered trolley cars. Train employes in the improved form of operation that gets people to their destination, instead of killing and maiming them.

A competent safety specialist will be one of the most profitable investments the company can make in the near future.

Punsters who see an opportunity in the line, "Woman to Lead Czechs," in regard to national groups in the Masque of St. Louis, are hereby solemnly reminded that the word is pronounced "Checks."

TWO KINDS OF SLAVERY.

The Rockefellers are horror-stricken at white slavery and are devoting a great fund to the breaking up of the traffic and the rescue of the slaves.

But they have no pity for the slaves of the mines whom they have held in serfdom under feudal conditions and are willing to expend millions to keep them in that wretched state.

The Rockefellers happen not to be in the white slave traffic; they are in the mining slave business.

Building Commissioner McKelvey reports that the number of illegal billboards has been decreased to 104. The irreducible minimum is 0.

VICTORY WITH THE PLUS SIGN.

Of the campaigns won for the people of St. Louis in the recent past, too many have been campaigns which merely prevented something from being done which ought not to be done—which ought never to have been proposed. The successful campaign for a complete fulfillment of its franchise obligations by the traction company was a campaign to compel something to be done that ought to be done.

It is not a mere negative victory. It is a positive, constructive victory. The importance of its actual benefits are not to be disparaged. It places a fuller, better service at the disposal of the people in the vital matter of intramural transportation. It removes disadvantages that have handicapped some sections of the city as compared with other sections.

But its greater importance lies in the fact that it is one of those affirmitive, forward-going victories that have been too rare in this city. St. Louis is forced to expend far too much time and civic energy in preventing ground already won from being lost—in combatting A. & M. grabs, Southern Traction and other franchises provisions that ought never to have assumed objectionable form; neglect of plain duty on the part of remiss or timid officials; other things that obstruct progress in the twentieth century when the things that promote progress and keep us up with the times give us more than enough to wrestle with.

The winning of one victory that is more than a negative victory should be a happy omen for the winning of further victories of the same sort. There are other such victories which now are trembling in the balance. There is other new ground not yet completely occupied.

We should seek the achievement which adds the plus sign, not merely that which removes the minus sign.

The St. Louis Court of Appeals decides that the office of Public Administrator does not exist for the purpose of levying tribute on estates for merely holding them. With the courts sharing in the public's view, Mr. Troll is left in a lone minority.

We are going to delay for a while the payment of that $25,000,000 to Colombia. If it had the money now it might be tempted to lend it to the hard-up Federal administration in Mexico City.

WATCHFUL WAITING.

JUST A MINUTE.

UNIVERSAL TRANSFER SONG.

Bless me, this is better!
Does it pay to kick?
Ask the smiling passengers
If prayer turned the trick.
Say if it was kindness
Served to win the day,
And give me three or four by way
Of old Broadway

Thus we got the trailer,
And now they give us this!
Verily, a few good cranks
Shall kick us into bliss!
Heaven tend their courage,
Nor let their anger pass—
Give me half a dozen out
By way of Cass.

Transfer on a transfer—
Wasn't that a feat?
If we keep on kicking
Now, we'll get a seat!
All together, fellows—
Kicking as a man!
And give me six or seven
On the Suburban!

THE NEW TRAVELING.

The Casper (Wyo.) Press says Denver is losing ground as the stock market of that Western country, and gives the Colorado metropolis some advice with respect to this state of affairs. It says that recently the West has been overrun with boomers from Omaha and Council Bluffs, and that these boomers have taken away from Denver much that formerly belonged to her in trade. The Press gives us an idea of how these boomers operate. It seems that they go about in clouds like grasshoppers and locusts. Within a fortnight of the appearance of this editorial in the Press, two such delegations of boomers had visited Casper, one from Omaha and the other from Council Bluffs. They had invited all the stockmen in that part of Wyoming to a banquet, and had gone all through the West doing this, until they had actually turned the tide of trade to Omaha and Council Bluffs. In opposition to those delegations of boomers the individual traveling man has become a joke. It takes banquets and brass bands.

BASEBALL AND WAR.

It is surprising how baseball holds its own with war. There was little but baseball in the newspapers when the war broke out, and we were disposed to thankfulness that there was to be something else. The result has not been gratifying. Possibly it is because war is too slow for us in these moving times. In baseball something happens every day. Standings change. Averages are affected. Teams losing one day win the next. There is a new hero every minute. Interest is breathless.

War is at a great disadvantage as news. It is old. It is tedious. One day can be just like another—or one week—or one month. The modern nervous system can't stand it. It did for people who got around with camels and oxcarts, but it won't do for us. We tried to follow it, but ho-hum! There is too much parleying. There are too many armistices. Mediators interfere. None of those things is permitted in baseball. There is no haggling there. The action is continuous. There are no pigs on the diamond.

It is much better, really.

If war is likely to deprive the Pageant of lights loaned by the army, we shall have to give up all thought of further reprisals upon Gen. Huerta. It would be much easier for the Government to explain why it did not pursue the matter any further than it would be for us to explain why we didn't give Mr. Mackaye's Masque.

If Mr. Bryan is going to give up chautauqua work this year, Dr. Cook ought to have that field pretty much to himself. This is the first kindness anyone has shown the Doctor in a long time.

Col. Roosevelt has found a new river, but has he discovered that we are about to pay the United States of Columbia $25,000,000 for the loss of Panama?

Gen. Villa seems almost brilliant enough to make a successful baseball manager.

Pevely Sadders in the Swamp Is Still Mediating With the Surrounding Posse.

By LEWIS B. ELY.

Special Wireless War Correspondence.

SALEM, Mo., May 6.—Pevely Sadders is still surrounded by the angry posse over in the rocky marsh or dry swamp of Phelps County. However, the scene of military sensations suddenly shifted to Salem yesterday and I hurried hither to investigate the rumor that Salem is organizing a counter posse to rescue Pevely from his besiegers. Between us, I don't believe it. In the first place, the good people of Salem are not Pevely sympathizers. The only person who sympathizes with him or gives any indication of wanting to join him is the town drunkard.

In fact, there are no signs of military activity here. Today the town is positively quiet. Vera Cruz could not be more so. Law-abiding citizens are enjoying their siestas, or sitting out in front of the cafes and stores on dry goods boxes, or playing horseshoes over at the feed store—you would never guess that, only 15 miles away, in Phelps County, grave, warlike maneuvers and a siege are in progress.

Yet, peaceful as Salem is, it is not the worst place in the world for a war correspondent. Diversions are ample. I find that the dominant personal note is the proper thing in war dispatches, so I'll relate—at least in part—what I am doing. Last evening I escorted a charming young person of the opposite sex to a picture show and saw some thrilling Mexican films and navy reels; afterwards we partook of a little supper of tamales and unfermented catawba juice. This afternoon there will be a pitched battle between the Salem regulars and some local rebels on the baseball grounds, to which your correspondent will act as military escort for as many young ladies as can be conveniently placed under his care

I have had to have my khaki suit cleaned and pressed and my hat ironed in consequence of my long, hard ride with Pevely and my goings and comings through the swamp in the interests of mediation.

Pevely is likely to mediate in the swamp for some time. He has a barrel of Missouri beer in bottles. Meanwhile the Culpepper hounds are running a fox, which they started near Beulah, and the blue mule is wandering about the hilltops foraging and listening to the music of the pack.

THE EUGENIC FAMILY DECIDES TO ECONOMIZE ON MOVING DAY.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

HEALTH HINTS.

KING.—A physician says: Sty may rise from slight local causes o (as is often the case) when the con dition is almost continuous, fron anemia (or thin blood) or ametropia In the former case tonics are calle for; in the latter the lenses shoul be corrected by a good eye specialist For the treatment of the conditio itself, use a wash of boric acid, 1 grains to the ounce of boiled (bette distilled) water. It should be applie several times a day, washing thor oughly and allowing some to run int the eye. The lash in the center of th stye should be removed and hot ap plications made. When it "comes to head" a small incision should be mad (a perfectly clean or new needle wi do) and the pus squeezed out. How ever, stye is often a symptom of serious condition and a physicia should be consulted. Somebody a visas this stye remedy: Buy brewer yeast, fresh and of the best qualit and take a tablespoonful three tim a day for a week. Remit it three da and if inflammation does not subsi take it another week. It is harmle and of a wholesome bitterness. If y choose to mitigate this bitterne with a little powdered sugar y may do it. But the yeast is said act better if taken alone. Be sure get it fresh daily and keep it on t ice. The specific effect is on t blood.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS.

S. R. H.—A housekeeper says: To ke moths out of upholstered furniture, ca pets and clothing: Heat a flatiron ve hot, place on a brick or stone in t room, put as much gum camphor will lie on under the handle of the iro and close up the room for a few hour You will never be troubled with mot again.

VIVA.—To keep bedbugs away buy cents' worth impure or black carboli acid, 5 cents' oil of turpentine. Bea white of an egg to a froth, very stiff Mix it thoroughly into the other in gredients. With a small flat brush clos up all crevices with this, especially a the back of the bed; in fact, all over. A it forms a paste, the bugs will neve be found in your beds. It has, as a pre ventive, been used on the most expen sive furniture.

BUGS.—Buy a pound of cyanide o potash, such as is used for the ex traction of gold from its ores. Break into small pieces and put into earth enware crock. Then cautiously pou half pound of sulphuric acid into pin of water. When windows and doors are carefully stopped up, pour the acid solution on the cyanide and run out o the room at once, closing door tight ly. Do not open room for two days The fumes are poisonous to person as well as insects of all kinds. No bed bug or flea will escape the treatment

D.—Dandelion wine—a good homemade tonic: Measure 3 quarts dandelion flowers (gathered on dry day), press ing hard into the measure so as to have enough to give the wine a wholesome bitter. Pour over the flowers 4 gallons boiling water, and let stand over night Next day boil 15 or 25 minutes, add 3 pounds sugar, 1 orange and 1 lemon sliced, and boil a few minutes longer Take from fire and when cooled to lukewarm add 1 yeast cake which ha been softened in a little of the water When quite through working, bottle and keep in a cool place.

LAW POINTS.

D. R.—Without knowing all the facts, we could not undertake to answer your question.

STAR.—If tenant has not paid rent he may be put out without service of a month's written notice by landlord.

P. S.—Delinquent tenant may be sued and garnished. Phone Prosecuting Attorney, Municipal Courts Building, about the criminal matter.

GIRL'S FRIEND.—Report violations of the 9-hour law to the Factory Inspector, Fullerton Building.

X. Y. Z.—Tenant must remove his fixtures, if he wishes to retain them before he surrenders his store or house.

WIDOW.—Real estate in Illinois held in names of husband and wife would not vest in the survivor absolutely. As to wife's share in property so held she would own half and in his half interest she would have a life estate to one-third. Property may be held in joint tenure in Illinois if deed is properly drawn up, and so states the survivor in such event taking title to the whole, but it seems this is disputed by attorneys and by the real estate fraternity in general some hold otherwise.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SUB.—The firemen are on duty "the whole 24 hours."

BENTON.—There is a Government land office in Little Rock, Ark.

A STRANGER.—Write to the hospital for the information you ask.

YOUNG MOTHER.—See or write Women's Training School, 1407 Locust.

EX-REGULAR. — National Commander Army and Navy Union, H. Oden Lake, Philadelphia, Pa.

R. G. C.—We cannot say "where is the best place for a couple to get married that are not of age." Children of 16 may marry in Tennessee, but there may be some rules that would make the young ones more or less trouble. Better wait. If there is real love it will keep for a very long time. We recall a good man, married at 19, who used to advise young men to wait until 30.

X. Y. Z.—Cabinet: Secretary of State, William Jennings Bryan, Nebraska; Treasury, William G. McAdoo, New York; War, Lindley M. Garrison, New York; Navy, Josephus Daniels, North Carolina; Interior, Franklin K. Lane, California; Agriculture, David F. Houston, Missouri; Commerce, William C. Redfield, New York; Labor, William B. Wilson, Pennsylvania; Attorney-General, James McReynolds, Tennessee; Postmaster-General, Albert Burleson, Texas.

R. H. R.—Richest man is said to be John D. Rockefeller; the Czar is also said to be the richest; so is the Maharajah of Baroda, who has one carpet that is valued at $5,000,000. No one of the following richest knows just the amount of his fortune: John D. Rockefeller, $1,000,000,000; Andrew Carnegie, $500,000,000; William Rockefeller, $250,000,000; George F. Baker, $250,000,000; James B. Duke, $200,000,000; Henry F. Frick, $150,000,000; W. K. Vanderbilt, $150,000,000; V. Astor $125,000,000; A. G. Vanderbilt, $80,000,000. Some of these figures are doubtless exaggerations.

BO.—Coal measuring rules (approximate): For pounds of bituminous coal in a bin annex two ciphers to the number of cubic feet, and divide by 2. 8x6x5 equals 240 cubic feet. Annex two ciphers and get 24,000. 24,000 divided by 1 equals 12,000 pounds, equals 6 net tons. For anthracite coal proceed the same as for bituminous and add four times the number of cubic feet called pounds to your result. Thus, for bituminous we obtained 12,000 pounds. 4x240 cubic feet equals 960. 12,000 divided by 960 equals 12,960 pounds of anthracite, or 5 11-14 long tons. A cubic foot of anthracite coal weighs from 85 to 95 pounds. A cubic foot of bituminous from 50 to 55 pounds.

PERPLEXED.—Buffet luncheon: Invitations may be your visiting card with date and hour of luncheon engraved or written. Two or more courses are served, the first hot, consisting of fish or chicken croquettes peas and rolls, or something similar in selection. For instance, instead of peas, there may be creamed potatoes or asparagus and the meat prepared independent of croquette accessories. A salad with beaten biscuit or wafers follows and serving concludes with coffee or chocolate. The menu here given is for forenoon entertainment. When announced for usual reception hours, ice cream is added to the serving. Guests are seated at a buffet luncheon, while at a reception they are served while standing. Refreshments at receptions are similar with tea and punch tables in hall and living room, while in the dining room the serving consists of a salad, thin slices of bread and butter, ice cream, cake and coffee. Quite often the salad and bread are omitted. Hostess is at liberty to add to or take from the serving, according to her inclination.

A Study in Yellow

Showing an Episode Met With in the Course of a Newspaper Reporter's Day's Work.

By A. E. Heneberger.

DUROY floated into the office of the Gazette as the result of an advertisement calling for young men of good education who wished to learn the newspaper business. This advertisement was inserted monthly, and served to keep up the office force numerically, for it was Managing Editor Duffy's boast that few of the aspirants lived through the second week.

This fateful period was safely passed by Duroy's case, however, and he even found himself on the pay roll at the end of the third, something unusual in the annals of the Gazette.

The Gazette was one of those saffron-hued sheets on which it was well to speak softly to the office boy, lest he become editor-in-chief next day and fire you. The city editor's chair was especially precarious, and had been known to accommodate three men in one day.

Once Duffy abolished the position entirely, merging it with his own, until the business manager found it out, refilled the chair, and put Duffy out on the street to chase news like any common or garden reporter. But the erstwhile editor was game, and soon regained all he had lost in his superior's favor.

The 50-word rule was in vogue on the Gazette. That meant that unless a special permit were given, no story should exceed that limit. Consequently it was no uncommon sight to see the first page of the paper three-fourths head lines and one-fourth reading matter.

Duffy found Duroy a pupil after his own heart. A gourmand for work, quick with his pencil and clever.

"Look into this tonight, Duroy," said the chief, as he threw a police report on the youth's desk one day.

The report was commonplace enough.

"George L. Winslow, decorator, missing. Wife suspects desertion and asks police to look him up."

"Pretty bum story to take a man out a night like this," thought Duroy as he alighted from a car.

The reporter paused before a small store and glanced about for an entrance to the rooms above. He pulled the white bell handle, and the door was almost immediately opened by a sweet-faced young woman, and he was invited upstairs to a well-furnished room in which a grate fire added just the touch needed to make the transition from dreariness to comfort complete.

On a sofa in the corner two children, somewhere around 4 and 5 years of age, were sleeping under a warm blanket, their curls intermingling on the pillow. A boy of 7 eyed him curiously, while an older girl, whose features were a replica of those of the woman beside him, completed the family circle.

The woman's eyes were hollow, as if from much weeping. Yes, her husband had been gone two weeks. He had been out of work a long time previous to that, and was very despondent.

One day he said he had an offer of employment in Pittsburg and would be obliged to leave at once. He had promised to write, but no letter had arrived, and she feared some harm had come to him. The desertion theory, she said, had been advanced by the police, but she believed her husband loved her and would return if still alive.

"Our rent is unpaid," she said, "and even this furniture is not our own. If you print the story the landlord and other creditors will be down on us tomorrow, and what will become of these little children?"

Duroy thought hard.

"Madam," he said at length, "I cannot help you, much as I'd like to."

Duroy was about to tell her of "the newspaper man's duty to the public," when his glance fell on the curly heads in the corner. Then he forgot about the duty.

"Give me a sheet of paper," he said, and this is what he wrote:

"The reporter of the Gazette thinks it would be a beastly shame to use this story. He asks his comrades on the other papers to join him in killing it."

"Show this to the other men who come in," said Duroy.

Next day Duffy was in a fearful humor. To begin with, the pipes had frozen at his suburban home, and he was five minutes late at the office.

"What about that desertion story, Duroy?" asked Duffy.

"I looked it up sir," answered the reporter. "Nothing to it."

"Write it up and let me see it."

"To tell you the truth, Mr. Duffy," replied Duroy, "it's a pitiful little affair, and means the deuce for a miserable woman if it's printed. All the creditors will hound her; she'll be turned out of doors with four little children, and all the boys agreed to suppress it."

"To what?" Duffy's eye had become glassy. "Since when did you become editor of this paper, Mr. Duroy, that you have power to 'suppress'? I hadn't received notice," he added sarcastically.

"Write it! Write it, I say!" thundered Duffy.

"I'm damned if I will!" said Duroy.

"Wilson," he called to a reporter, "jump a car; go to 987 North Twenty-fifth street and get that story. As for you, Mr. Duroy, finish your work. We'll attend to your case later in the day."

The Gazette office resumed its ordinary routine. Duroy went through his district work mechanically. When he returned to his desk at 11 o'clock he found Wilson writing his story and Duffy making ready for the first edition, which appeared at noon.

A railroad wreck was coming over the wire, and the telegraph operator was grinding it out on his machine. Duffy was grabbing each sheet as he finished it, for time was precious. He had begun work on the head lines with the first page as a guide, and this was what he had written:

FRIGHTFUL WRECK

Twenty-Five Lives Lost Near Jessup Station.

Mangled Bodies Strew Track.

Duffy seized another sheet, glanced it over, and added another head to give the story a local application:

The Dead Include Residents of This City.

George Winslow ——

The editor paused and rubbed his forehead.

"I say Wilson!" he sang out. "What's the name of that party you're writing about?"

"George L. Winslow," answered the reporter.

"Throw it away!"

Then Duffy finished the head:

George Winslow Killed.

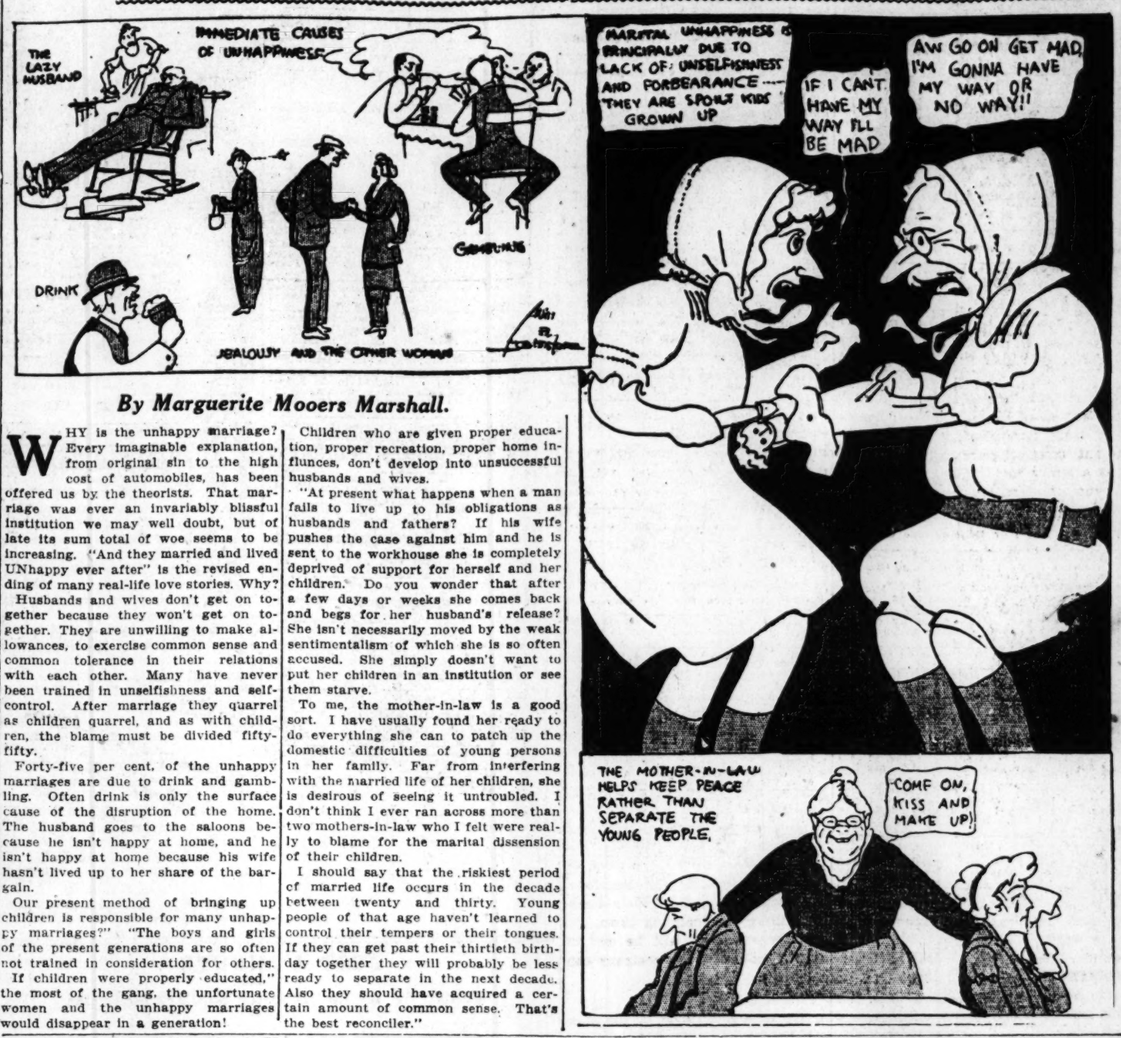

Returning Here After Unsuccessful Quest for Work.

The editor folded article and head and shot the copy through the pneumatic tube to the composing room. He was silent a moment. Then he spoke gruffly:

"Duroy, take this order to the cashier, pay Mrs. Winslow's rent, and make some arrangement with her other creditors. Throw a heart-throb into your story, and don't let me have any more of your damned insubordination."

Unhappy Marriages Would Cease to Exist If All Children Were Properly Educated

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall.

WHY is the unhappy marriage? Every imaginable explanation, from original sin to the high cost of automobiles, has been offered us by the theorists. That marriage was ever an invariably blissful institution we may well doubt, but of late its sum total of woe seems to be increasing. "And they married and lived UNhappy ever after" is the revised ending of many real-life love stories. Why?

Husbands and wives don't get on together because they won't get on together. They are unwilling to make allowances, to exercise common sense and common tolerance in their relations with each other. Many have never been trained in unselfishness and self-control. After marriage they quarrel as children quarrel, and as with children, the blame must be divided fifty-fifty.

Forty-five per cent. of the unhappy marriages are due to drink and gambling. Often drink is only the surface cause of the disruption of the home. The husband goes to the saloons because he isn't happy at home, and he isn't happy at home because his wife hasn't lived up to her share of the bargain.

Our present method of bringing up children is responsible for many unhappy marriages?" "The boys and girls of the present generations are so often not trained in consideration for others.

If children were properly educated," the most of the gang, the unfortunate women and the unhappy marriages would disappear in a generation!

Children who are given proper education, proper recreation, proper home influnces, don't develop into unsuccessful husbands and wives.

"At present what happens when a man fails to live up to his obligations as husbands and fathers? If his wife pushes the case against him and he is sent to the workhouse she is completely deprived of support for herself and her children. Do you wonder that after a few days or weeks she comes back and begs for her husband's release? She isn't necessarily moved by the weak sentimentalism of which she is so often accused. She simply doesn't want to put her children in an institution or see them starve.

To me, the mother-in-law is a good sort. I have usually found her ready to do everything she can to patch up the domestic difficulties of young persons in her family. Far from interfering with the married life of her children, she is desirous of seeing it untroubled. I don't think I ever ran across more than two mothers-in-law who I felt were really to blame for the marital dissension of their children.

I should say that the riskiest period of married life occurs in the decade between twenty and thirty. Young people of that age haven't learned to control their tempers or their tongues. If they can get past their thirtieth birthday together they will probably be less ready to separate in the next decade. Also they should have acquired a certain amount of common sense. That's the best reconciler."

Fables of Everyday Folk

By Sophie Irene Loeb.

The Agitator.

OLD AESOP tells the following fable:

"In the days when animals could speak, some sheep said to their master, 'We do not understand how it is that you give us only grass which we can find easily for ourselves, when you feed the dog upon all the good things that come from your own table. It is not fair, for we make you rich with our lambs and our wool, whilst the dog gives you nothing in return for all your favor.'

"Then the dog, who had been listening to this speech, cried out: 'Yes, but you must remember that it is I who prevent you from being stolen by thieves or devoured by wolves. If I were not there to guard you, you would not even be able to eat the grass, for fear of being killed.'

"This answer contented the sheep, and ever since they have agreed that the dog is worthy of all the honor shown to him."

But not so with man. Once upon a time there was a factory. The factory employed many men. Some worked at machines, others packed, others counted wares, swept the floors, polished the handles, etc. In a word, each man had his particular work allotted to him and he was expected to do it.

One day an unusually large order came in that had to be completed as quickly as possible, and everybody got busy. And all would have gone well excepting for one man. He seemed to have a little more smattering of "learning" than the others, and they looked up to him as their spokesman. In reality he was one of the bosses.

This man often looked to the manager's job and thought what a snap it was—just to give orders and have them carried out. This boss also had the agitating spirit within him, and he thought this would be a good time to display it. So he got the men together and spoke to them something like this:

"Brothers, we ought not to stand for it. We should be paid more money for this rush order. Let's show the manager that he can't sit in the office smoking a good cigar, reading a newspaper; while we make money for him by the sweat of our brows.

"Let's go to the President and make our demands direct," etc.

This man higher up, the President, listened to them very attentively, and then answered them something like this:

"So you think the manager has it easy and is imposing on you? Well, then, let me tell you something. Perhaps you don't realize that our business has been anything but prosperous in the last couple of years. We have had keen competition and, but for that manager, I would have closed down the whole factory long ago; and you men might not have had this steady employment.

"Here are the documents to prove it. Also my written orders to him to dispose of the whole business. This man, whose job you think is an easy one, has spent many sleepless nights figuring how to keep you on the pay without lowering your wages, until the critical times should have passed and more profitable ones come in their stead. While you were working with the sweat of your brow, he has been working with the sweat of his brain."

Dorothy and Mary Jane

Sandman Story of How Dorothy at Last Gains Consent to Play With Mary Jane Every Day.

By Mrs. F. A. Walker.

PART III.

DOROTHY was introduced to another new game after lunch, and because she was a visitor and had never played at hide and seek she was allowed to hide and not be it at all.

Then all of the little girls took off their shoes and stockings and paddled in the water. Dorothy screamed when she first dipped her toes in, but the mud was soft and felt smooth to her feet and soon she was ankle deep and hoping the day would never end.

But it did end suddenly, for her name was called from the other side of the fence and Dorothy knew it was her mother.

"Yes, mother," answered Dorothy, the joy dying out of her little face.

"You come right home," said her mother. "How in the world did you ever get over this fence? We have hunted everywhere for you."

The little sisters helped her into her dress and Margaret said: "We better take her round by the road."

"We can get a ladder and she can climb up the fence and they can put one up on the other side," said Mary Jane; "that won't hurt her dress."

The ladder was brought and Dorothy climbed it, followed by Mary Jane.

"How will you get down on this side?" asked her mother. "How in the world, Dorothy West, did you ever get on the other side of this high fence?"

"I helped her over the iron fence at the end of your garden," explained Mary Jane, looking over Dorothy's shoulder. "But I made her take off her dress first and it is not hurt a bit. Please don't scold her. I invited her or she would not have come."

"Yes, I would," said Dorothy. "I was trying to look through the fence before you looked over and I wanted to come over before you asked me."

Dorothy's grandfather came through the garden, followed by a man carrying a ladder, and Dorothy was soon on the other side of the fence beside her mother.

Margaret, Barbara and Susan were all on their ladder by this time looking over, but when they saw Dorothy's grandfather, they all disappeared. All but Mary Jane. She stayed to say good-by to Dorothy.

"You need not blame Dorothy, Mr. West," she said to Dorothy's grandfather. "I am to blame and you need not be afraid that I will come over there."

Dorothy's grandfather looked up at Mary Jane's pleading face. "Which one are you?" he asked.

"I am Mary Jane. I guess you never saw me before, because the fence was built before I was born and before Barbara was born, too. It was when Susan was a baby, Tom says, and he and Jim were the ones who were really to blame. They sent Ned for the ball when it went over on your side. He was a little fellow and walked on your flowers. It must have been a long time ago. I never minded the fence until today when I asked Dorothy to come over here and play. It is an awful long way round by the road. Good-by, Dorothy. You will come again, won't you; we can't come over on your side.?"

No one scolded Dorothy, but she was asked many questions and when that night she fell asleep at the table her grandfather carried her upstairs in his arms and said to her mother: "She had a good time like any other little girl for once in her life. I guess it is about time that fence came down; the boys are grown up now. It is a long walk by the road, as Mary Jane said, and if you will stay all summer I'll have the fence taken down."

The next morning, when Dorothy went into the yard, there was an opening in the fence, where a board had been removed, and she looked through on the other side.

"Mary Jane," she called, "Margaret, Barbara, Susan."

The little sisters came running from the house.

"Why, Dorothy," they gasped when they saw the opening. "Who did it?"

"My grandfather had the man do it, and he is going to have the fence taken down just as soon as he can get the men to do the work."

'Oh, goody, goody," cried the little sisters, dancing up and down and clapping their hands.

"Won't it be just too lovely for anything?" said Margaret. "Now we can play all day and every day and all you will have to do is to go home and sleep."

"Yes, 'cause we have only just enough beds, and I guess you will want to go home to eat after a while. You'll get tired of molasses."

"No, I won't," replied Dorothy. "I am going to have it every day if I want it. Grandmother had a pitcher of molasses put on the table this morning and she said it would be on every day while I stayed."

Dorothy stayed all that summer and many summers after were spent with her grandparents, and when it was time to go back to the city all winter Dorothy would plan what she and Mary Jane and the sisters would do when the summer came again.

Where Marriage Is a Failure

THAT there should be such involved discussion, and so many amazingly contradictory theories about the cause of the failure of marriage is surprising.

The plain fact is that marriage is always the end of romance and the beginning of history. This is so true that Homer tells us the women of ancient Greece reckoned their ages, not from the birth date, but from the wedding day. A good many husbands in this twentieth century are a good deal more certain about the number of years their wives have lived since marriage than about the summers and winters they had numbered before they became wives.

Failure to recognize the difference between romance and history causes failure of marriage. Romance is all play; history is serious business. Courtship is pie; marriage is potatoes, says the Mother's Magazine. The come-down from pie to potatoes sometimes overstrains matters seriously. But if this crisis is safely passed, another awaits.

Love is the spice of life, but friendship is the nourishing food, without which life, except to unusual individuals, becomes a burden. The marriage which is all spice and no food soon gives one, or frequently both of the parties thereto, acute indigestion. When the ecstatic emotions of the honeymoon have fled, marriage must find some other subsistence, or it cannot thrive. And the only satisfying food is friendship.

STRAIGHT FROM THE SHOULDER.

Success Talks to Young Men.

Self-Control.

MOST of the foolish things we do—the things were are sorry for afterward—happen at moments when we are not in full control of ourselves.

Many a young man has seen fleeting opportunity elude his grasp because at the moment the self-control necessary to intelligent reaching was not his.

Self-control means precisely what it reads—the full command of yourself, the captaincy over your mind and body under military discipline.

It means to be able to hold yourelf in check when natural inclination would overstep the bounds of common sense. It means quite as well to be able to speed yourself up when natural inclination unwisely lags. It is both brake and throttle under your hand.

It is more. It is steering wheel too. It is the mental poise which enables you to scan guideposts and turns in the road without too much prejudice or predilection, but rather with an openmindedness that invites and recognizes reason.

Self-control keeps you from fighting when peace is of greater moment, and from peace when fighting is needed. It keeps you from doing the unwise thing when emotion or lack of patience or momentary weakness or outside pressure would lead you into indiscretions of temper, or speech or action.

Self-control wins many victories, but makes few enemies. And it is a great conserver of self-respect. It never cheapens its possessor.

Self-control—control of self.

It's not easy. It's hard. It's harder than controlling someone else. If you're in a position to command, the others must obey. But when it comes to commanding yourself—obedience is only a matter of experiment. If you can control yourself you are doubly strong!

Acid Stomachs Are Dangerous

Common Sense Advice by a Distinguished Specialist.

"Acid" stomachs are dangerous because acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, thus hindering and preventing the proper action of the stomach, and leading to probably nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble from which people suffer. Ordinary medicines and medicinal treatments are useless in such cases, for they leave the source of the trouble, the acid in the stomach, as dangerous as ever. The acid must be neutralized, and its formation prevented, and the best thing for this purpose is a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia, a simple antacid, taken in a little warm or cold water after eating, which not only neutralizes the acid, but also prevents the fermentation from which acidity is developed. Foods which ordinarily cause greatest distress may be eaten with impunity if the meal is followed with a little bisurated magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist, and should always be kept handy. —ADV.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp—At Once.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need) apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.—ADV.

THE POST-DISPATCH'S DAILY RECORD OF MARKETS AND FINANCE

PROFESSIONALS ONLY BUYERS IN EASTERN MARKET

Prices Are Slightly Irregular in the Late Session—News Is Scarce.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The Evening Post, in its copyrighted financial review, today says:

"Opening with moderate London selling, which reflected the mood of the day on Europe's Stock Exchanges, our own market, after a brief recovery, came to a standstill. Thereafter fluctuations in prices were mostly fractional; such changes as occurred were irregular, but with one or two noticeable declines in stocks subject to special influences, and with the closing somewhat weak.

"Wall street described the market correctly enough as one that was merely waiting for such impending news as the Government crop report and the railway rate decision.

"A recovery in Rock Island collateral 4s was one incident of the day; it occurred while the report of the bondholders' committee's expert, on the condition and financial needs of the property, is being held back from the investors, whose interests it primarily affects.

Crops Reports Are Good.

"In the field of general news, little occurred to influence sentiment or prices. The course of the Mexican negotiations foreshadowed slow and deliberat procedure which may not be at all unfortunate.

"Reports from the winter wheat belt continued as favorable as before; but the grain trade rested on its oars, awaiting tomorrow's Government report.

"The statement of the country's April iron output showed a decrease of only 77,800 tons from March; the average daily output was larger than in any month from November to February inclusive, and the Iron Age reported some accumulation of unsold iron.

"It could not be truthfully said that 'Senator La Follette's trumpet call, to resist the campaign for higher railway rates, had any very great influence on financial sentiment. Nobody doubted the Senator's own feelings over his discovery that 'John Doe' had telegraphed the Interstate Commerce Commission to decide the rate case or resign, that 'Richard Roe' had nefariously used Union League Club stationery to express his views on the question; that a gentleman with no name at all should have coerced the commission by predicting railway receiverships, and that an incriminating rubber stamp should have been traced to the White House clerk.

"Such disclosures," our Wisconsin statesman remarked, with his habitual reserve of statement, "stagger the mind," and indeed if a mind that has seemed to be staggering for half a dozen years can be thus affected by a fresh emotion, these are the very things that should produce it.

"Perhaps the injection of a bit of 'opera bouffe' was needed to relieve the tension over the rate case. One may even imagine a secret smile indulged in by the overworked commissioners themselves as they read that part of their morning paper."

National Bank of Commerce stock lost a fraction of a point in the early local trading Wednesday, and Bankers' Trust was unchanged on transfers at $110. Other bank shares were quiet but steady, compared with the preceding call.

United Railways stocks were inactive and unchanged on the quotations recorded, but the 4s were steady at $69.25 sales.

Union Sand and Material stock was fairly well taken at $75. Other miscellaneous shares were quiet. Bonds reflected an indifferent investment demand.

Trading was quiet at the afternoon session of the Exchange. Prices were about steady.

St. Louis Money Market.

Generally speaking, out-of-town banks have not been very conspicuous in the local market operations this spring. The banks in the section served by this city seem to be very well satisfied with their condition and, barring one or two instances where there has been real necessity for help, the situation generally has been all that could be asked for. Interest rates have been 4 to 4½ per cent this week on two and three months' paper, and demand funds appear to be plentifully obtainable on the best collateral, as low as 4¼ per cent, although 4½ per cent is practically the rule.

A good, steady market on an active basis was being staged on horses today. Eastern and Southern states bought their liberal supplies in a steady spread.

There was a fair request for mules on the miner and big mule order today, but with these two exceptions there was a slow; slumping trade on hand.

Hog Prices Are Firm.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Hog prices climbed today. The offerings were much fewer than at the corresponding time a week ago. Decreased receipts of cattle did not extend the demand to the degree sellers had hoped for. Trade in sheep and lambs proved slow as a result of the firmness of holders.

PRICE CURRENT.

"Needed rains have fallen the past week over the western end of the winter wheat belt and have put the plant in good condition. Nothing of a damaging character developed. The abandoned acreage will barely exceed a million, leaving for harvest the largest area in the history of winter wheat. Rains in the dry section of the Northwest have put the soil there in fine shape. Oats seeding is being brought to a close in the larger part of the country. Corn planting is extending northward rapidly and the work will be finished on time, barring rains, as the weather in the past two weeks has been of the best for field work over the major part of the belt. The average should show some increase in some of the Western States on account of the small crop of last year."

Perfect crop weather over the entire winter wheat belt, restrained buying in wheat futures Wednesday, despite light primary receipts, firm Liverpool cables and expected small week's shipments from the Argentine. Corn futures also were firm in tone. Oats were quiet.

Disappointing American cables Tuesday caused realizing at the opening in Liverpool and values were ¼d to ⅝d lower. Following the opening shorts covered and prices quickly advanced ⅛d to ⅝d, with May leading. Firmness of near Manitobas and a lack of selling pressure from all exporting countries, with expected light Liverpool arrivals and recent light world's shipments and free takings by the Continent, stimulated speculative buying.

Liverpool corn opened ⅝d lower, on reports of fine weather in Argentine, but later there was renewed covering and prices advanced ¼d to ½d, with the strength in the near month. Fewer Plate offers, strength in Buenos Ayres and private reports of serious damage in Argentine helped the advance. The late market was easier.

Minneapolis wheat receipts totaled 100 cars, against 161 last week and 198 last year. Duluth, 26, against 10 and 115. Winnipeg, 139, against 140 and 240. Minneapolis wheat cars decreased 525,000 bu for four days.

Liverpool wheat closed ½d higher, corn ¼d lower. Paris wheat unchanged to ¼c higher; flour ¼c to ½c higher. Antwerp wheat unchanged. Berlin ¼c lower.

B. W. Snow wired from Newton, Kan.: "Wheat through Western Missouri is perfect. Eastern Kansas never had prospects better than today. An occasional field already heading out in Kaw Valley, and heading general in a week. Enough moisture now to mature the crop. Corn planting approaching completion and a little coming up."

Local wheat receipts were 43,395 bu, or 620 sacks, 31 cars local, 4 through; last year, 96,000 bu, or 69 cars local, 11 through. Corn receipts, 44,400 bu, or 28 cars local, 9 through; last year, 97,200 bu, or 58 cars local, 23 through. Oats receipts, 66,300 bu, or 21 cars local, 18 through; last year, 66,300 bu, or 27 cars local, 12 through.

Clearances—Wheat 168,000 bu; corn, none; oats, 2,000; flour, 75,000. Wheat and flour, 506,000.

Chicago wheat cars Tuesday were 123; corn, 35; oats, 96. Inspected Wednesday—Wheat, 39; corn, 46; oats, 64.

DETAILED REPORTS OF DAY'S WALL STREET TRANSACTIONS

NEW YORK, May 6.—The morning's movement came to little. After the slight early decline prices held steady for a time, and subsequently hardened slowly. Early heaviness was due principally to continued realizing on a small scale. The large speculative interests held back.

In the absence of leadership or of any developments with influence on financial affairs, traders were conservative in their dealings and the market developed no definite trend.

Some of the internal shares were heavy for a time, but London did little in this market. A better demand appeared toward noon and quotations were marked up to about a level with the preceding close.

Bonds were steady. Rock Island collaterals were bought in round amounts and advanced 2 points.

Speculation was characterized during today's early market by growing dullness and hesitation, such as appeared in yesterday's trading. Only a nominal amount of business was transacted in the first half hour. Lower prices were made all through the list, but these changes were slight, and were due to absence of demand rather than to bear pressure. The market apparently had settled down for an indefinite period of waiting, pending developments in the Mexican situation.

BEANS AND PEAS—Quote white beans in car lots—choice new hand-picked, $2.35; machine picked at $2.25 per bushel—small lots and on orders higher; blackeye peas at $2.90 for Western. From store—Scotch peas at $1.35 per bushel; split peas at $2.50 per bushel for yellow and $2.75 for green; pink beans, 5¼c per pound; lima beans, 7¼c; lentils, 4¼@5c; red kidney beans, 5.50@5.65c. Mexican chile beans, 4¼c.

NUTS—Quote pecans at 7¼c for small to 8c for average Texas—large Texas worth more. Peanuts, 3@3½c per pound for farmers' stock.

FOREIGN BUYING HELPS THE BULLS IN COTTON

NEW YORK, May 6.—The cotton market opened steady, unchanged to 3 higher, and sold 3 to 5 net higher during early trading. Weather advices were favorable and the map suggested clear weather for the next day or two, but there did not seem to be much cotton for sale here, while Liverpool was an active buyer of July, and there was a demand for new crop months. The Liverpool buying was supposed to be undoing straddles, as July showed a discount of 130 points under July-August abroad.

The market was very quiet late in the morning, but continued steady and was about 4 to 9 points net higher shortly after midday.

The market was easier during the early afternoon, owing to the favorable detailed weather reports and scattered Southern selling. Old crop months held a shade over yesterday's finals, but later deliveries sold 2 or 3 points net lower. Closing prices were irregular.

The Jarr Family

By ROY L. McCARDELL.

Mr. Jarr and Harold Dogstory Do Some Mutual Life Saving.

MR. JARR was looking out of the window of the car at the fast-flying landscape. He would have raised up the window and jumped out, only he knew that no human power can raise a Pullman car window. They can only be raised by a colored man in blue uniform, and only by him after he has received at least one dime in advance. Mr. Jarr had resolved he would rather die than tip the Pullman porter again, and as he could neither die nor make a leap for life unless the window was opened he resolved to stay where he was and go on a hunger strike.

Meanwhile Fritz's fat sister, the Obese Odalisque who had been wished upon him, poured chatter into his ear of carnival and side-show life, and the militant feminist lecturer, a seat farther back, sat gloating over his misery as a baffled human vulture.

From hunger striking—for Mr. Jarr resolved he would not go into the dining car with the fat girl—Mr. Jarr's thoughts reverted to the beefsteak dinner that was being prepared in his honor over a thousand miles away!

Suddenly Mr. Jarr was aroused from the state of coma brought duffy on by hunger pang at his thoughts, and a dull earache superinduced by the shipping clerk's fat sister's chatter, when he felt something like a large, cold finger thrust down his neck, and suddenly his head was jerked back, and he turned to look into the friendly face of Harold Dogstory, the theatrical publicity promoter.

"Indoor sports!" cried the press agent blithely. "Eloping with a circus freak in a Pullman car!" And he dexterously removed the head of his cane from Mr. Jarr's collar, for it was the ivory handle, carved into the semblance of the female leg divine, that had been used by Mr. Dogstory to arouse Mr. Jarr from his day nightmare.

"What, ho?" continued the affable press agent. "The last time I lamp you is on Broadway, just when 'The Girl From the Cheese Factory' flops! Elucidate! Elucidate!"

To Mr. Jarr the friendly countenance of Harold Dogstory was more than money; it was balm in Gilead. He arose and grasped the press agent by the arm and said, "Let's go to the smoking car and have a drink, and you shall know all."

"I'm afraid we can't get a drink," said the press agent. "I think we're passing through a dry State. I know I feel in a dry state, but at least we can have a frugal cigarette and a drink of ice water. Come on!"

And, without asking to be excused from his chattering and ponderous traveling companion, Mr. Jarr led the way at double quick through the corridors of the vestibuled train.

After he had explained how the young fat woman had been thrust upon him and how his whole journey had been one of haunting horror of militant feminists and obese odalisques, he was surprised to have Harold Dogstory slap him heartily on the back and exclaim, "Jarr, old man, you've saved my life!"

"Whadda ya mean, saved your life!" inquired Mr. Jarr.

"Why, we reorganized that smashing musical hit, 'The Girl From the Cheese Factory,' got a new boob with a bank roll to back it and took it out on the road. We are limping in with it to Chi to die, as the boob's bank roll has faded. All we could have hoped for was to make enough enough seed corn to get us back to Broadway—but now, but now"——

"But now, what?" asked Mr. Jarr.

"But now you inspire me to pull a story good for the front page—war in Hot Tamala Land or not—I got you, and I got ya good!"

"You elucidate, and elucidate quick and a plenty!" snorted Mr. Jarr.

"Why, I'm going into Chi to try to land some publicity for my show," explained Harold Dogstory. "Everything else has been pulled in vain—this war scare stuff cuts advance dramatic press matter down to the bone—four lines in agate—if it gets printed at all—on the ninth page next to 'Real Estate Transfers in the Suburbs,' under the heading 'Theatrical Jottings.'

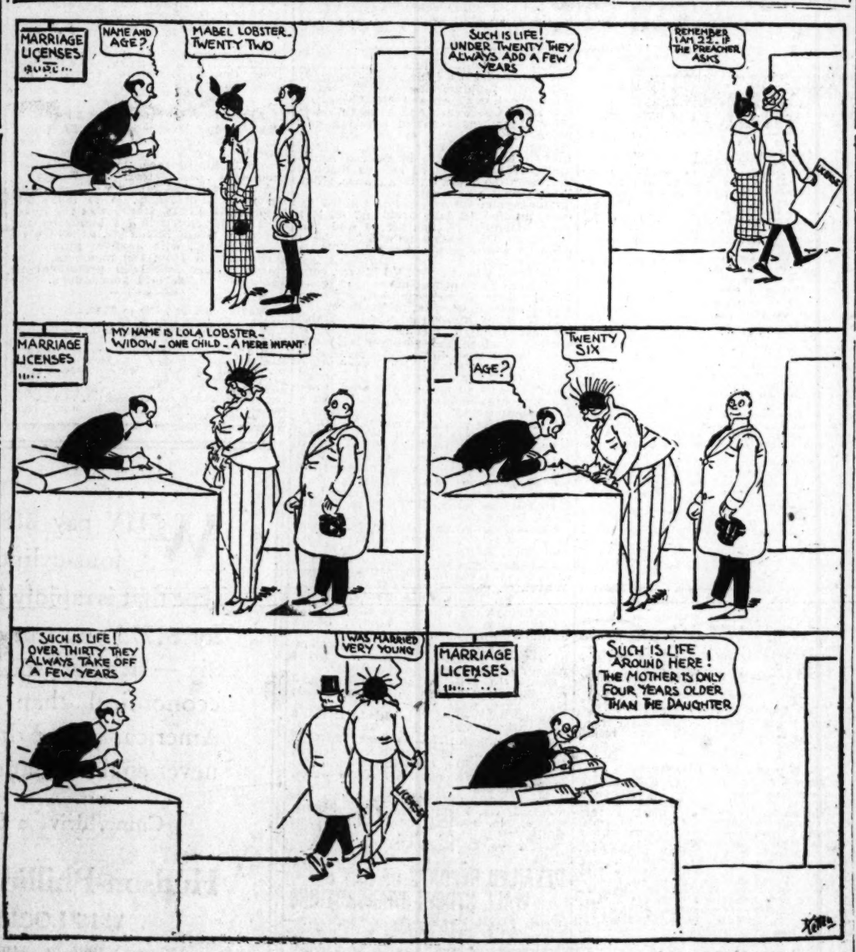

"But you've give me something that will push the Old Flag out of the limelight and turn Huerta's halftone cut next pure reading matter—and pure reading matter is never on the front page!

"You say the fair young fat lady is leaving home to get a circus job? Well, I'll book her with 'The Girl From the Cheese Factory' as 'The One Girl Chorus Phalanx.' Get me? But I'll pull a heart-interest, first day story—wait till I wire ahead!" And he rushed off to find a porter and a telegraph blank.

"Everybody's insane, and no asylums to put 'em in!" murmured Mr. Jarr.

The Boss

A BOSS is a man who is a municipal or national depository for votes.

Under our glorious Constitution each man has one vote. However, the Constitution says nothing about borrowing votes. Some men have the use of a million at election time.

Some people imagine that a boss is a cruel and tyrannical individual who takes the votes of the people and walks on their necks in return. He is nothing of the sort. He is a kind and affable creature who takes your vote and gives you more for it than you could possibly get in any other market.

No one is kinder than the boss is to the man whose vote he is carrying around in his vest pocket. However, this very kindness compels him to be distinctly brutal at times to the rest of mankind.

A boss is as hard on a city as a chauffeur is on an automobile when he is using it to haul his friends around by night. After a boss has been using the city for the convenience and happiness of his friends for a few years, the poor thing looks as if the dogs had been fighting over it.

A boss isn't a leader. He doesn't care where the people go if he can only be allowed to follow behind carrying their votes in a neatly sealed package. Sometimes bosses will even assist in great reforms, because if they didn't the people would take their votes back and cast them themselves.

Some bosses boss for the mere love of it. Others boss for the love of richly furnished homes and large bank accounts. After a boss has begun renting out the votes of his constituents to the highest bidder, it is very hard indeed to prevent him from becoming an odoriferous millionaire.

The boss' motto is: "Give the people what they want, but get a commission on it." When the bossed people of an American city want paved streets they can have them, but they cost twice as much as they do in other towns.

Sooner or later every boss gets to thinking of himself first and his vote lenders second. This is a sad mistake for the men who lend him their votes are just as greedy as he is. About that time hard words are uttered and a heavy snow descends at Election day.

After that the boss takes his millions and goes to Europe. This is very poor business on our part. His millions should be taken from him and he should be sent to Europe. Life in Europe without the millions would be a cruel and unusual punishment, and in consequence bossism would seen become unpopular—Collier's Weekly.

The Tenderfoot at Poker

A CHICAGO man tells of a poker game played in a Wyoming town, in a saloon where the barkeeper, with the assistance of three crooks, puts one across now and then on a tenderfoot.

One night such a specimen appeared, and, after a few drinks, was induced to "sit in" for a while, at a dollar limit.

Matters progressed in the usual way for a bit; then an astonishing series of nods and winks began to pass about. The bartender had signaled that the tenderfoot held four kings on the draw. Then the betting began.

Presently a waiter brought sandwiches and whisky, in order to distract the tenderfoot. While the latter was disposing of his drink the man next to him slipped a sixth card into his hand, thus nullifying it.

The unconscious tenderfoot took up a huge sandwich, bit off a large mouthful, and began to bet again. He was, of course, raised all around. He bet on, and ate on, quite calmly. A big sum lay on the table.

Then, very suddenly, the bartender resumed his signaling. He was excited. It was plain that things were going wrong. The crooks, anxious, called the tenderfoot.

The latter finished the last bite of his sandwich, took a big drink of whisky and laid down his original five cards. Then, in silence, he gathered up his winnings and took his leave.

After his departure there was the deuce to pay. "What," demanded the crooks of the bartender—"what did he do with that sixth card?"

"Didn't you see?" howled the bartender, dancing with rage. "He ate it in his sandwich!"—Lippincott's.
